Car Kills City Man; Girl On Sled Hurt

An East Liverpool man was killed today when struck by an auto in East End and a 6-year-old girl was injured critically when her sled and an auto were involved in a collision Saturday afternoon.

Charles W. Whitney Victim In Auto Mishap

A 60-year-old pottery worker was killed this morning when struck by another pottery worker's auto as he crossed Pennsylvania Ave. near his home to another car waiting to take him to work.

Charles W. Whitney, 1362 Pennsylvania Ave., an employee of the Homer Laughlin China Co., was pronounced dead on arrival at City Hospital from head injuries suffered in the first fatal accident in the city since September 1962.

Mr. Whitney suffered skull and brain damage and a laceration of the back of the head.

POLICE identified the driver of the westbound auto that struck Mr. Whitney, about 200 feet east of Maryland Ave., as Richard S. Chapman, 23, of 894 Valley Ave., also a Laughlin employee en route to work. The accident was timed at 6:15 a. m. Dr. William S. Koloszi, county coroner, was called to investigate but delayed issuing a ruling until he received a copy of the police report of the accident.

Chapman told police he was headed west about 25 miles an hour when he saw another auto parked along the north curb and swerved to the left to avoid hitting it.

MR. WHITNEY, who was crossing to the car from his home on the south side of the street, "came out of nowhere," Chapman told Patrolmen Paul A. Burson Jr. and David K. Maw.

The young pottery worker said he slammed on his brakes and struck Mr. Whitney at about the same instant.

Police said Mr. Whitney was wearing dark clothing and the street was dimly lighted. It also was "very icy," the officers said.

The officers said Mr. Whitney's body skidded 114 feet from where they believe the impact occurred, and the car skidded almost the same distance, stopping only a few feet from the victim.

POLICE SAID the halted car was operated by Calvin H. Adams, 1619 Ohio Ave., another Laughlin employee, who had stopped to take Mr. Whitney to work.

The accident occurred alongside his car, the officers said, but Mr. Adams told the police he didn't see the crash but heard the impact. He was bending over to adjust a part on his auto when Mr. Whitney was struck, he told the officers.

Mr. Whitney became the 30th traffic victim in the county this year, tying the number of traffic deaths recorded in 1962.

The Dawson Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

City Child's 'Critical'

In Pittsburgh Hospital

A 6-year-old East Liverpool girl was in "critical" condition today at Pittsburgh Mercy Hospital with an open skull fracture and other injuries suffered late Saturday afternoon when her sled ran into the front wheel of a moving auto on Avondale St. 50 feet north of Minerva St.

She is Mary Duffy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Duffy, 720 Avondale St., whose sled was involved in a mishap at 5:25 p. m. with a 1960 sedan operated by Frederick Yonz, 48, of 1076 Rubicon St., Beechwood.

The child was treated at the emergency room at City Hospital before being removed to the Pittsburgh hospital. Her father is a printer, employed in the composing room at The Review. She is a grand-daughter of the late James M. Duffy, former president of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters.

Loss In Track Fire May Hit $500,000

Many Bodies Sighted

Hundreds Saved From Fireswept Liner, Toll Rises

LONDON (AP)—A raging fire forced 1,016 persons to abandon the Christmas cruise ship Lakonia in the Atlantic today. A massive air-sea rescue operation plucked hundreds from the ocean and more were being saved hourly. A U.S. Air Force report said about 100 persons were floating in the water and all appeared dead.

Aboard the 20,314-ton Greek liner when disaster struck Sunday night were 651 passengers on a holiday, mostly British but including four Americans, and a crew of 365. Reports of the total rescued ranged from 470 to more than 800 but there was a possibility of some duplication.

All but the stern of the ship was ablaze and explosions rocked her 608-foot length when rescue vessels arrived on the scene about 180 miles northwest of Casablanca. The water was dotted with lifeboats and swimmers.

Great clouds of smoke rolled up from the red-hot hulk. People wild with joy waved from lifeboats as rescuers approached. Others struggled to swim as far away from the Lakonia as they could. The water temperature was 64 degrees, warm enough to give those in the sea a chance to survive.

Officials of the line believed two babies and 30 to 34 children under 12 were aboard. Some accounts told of mothers tossing children into lifeboats and of parents struggling in the water to keep their children afloat.

U.S. and British military planes criss-crossed the area, spotting swimmers and lifeboats and directing rescue boats.

A U.S. Air Force air rescue report received in Orlando, Fla., said a C-54 flying over the area from the Azores told of the casualties. It said "the 100 were wearing life jackets but all appeared to be dead."

Radio messages told of the dramatic rescue. The master of the British Tanker Montcalm, Capt. E. J. Kempton, an Englishman, reported:

"There are a lot of people in the water around the burning vessel. We are picking up as many as possible."

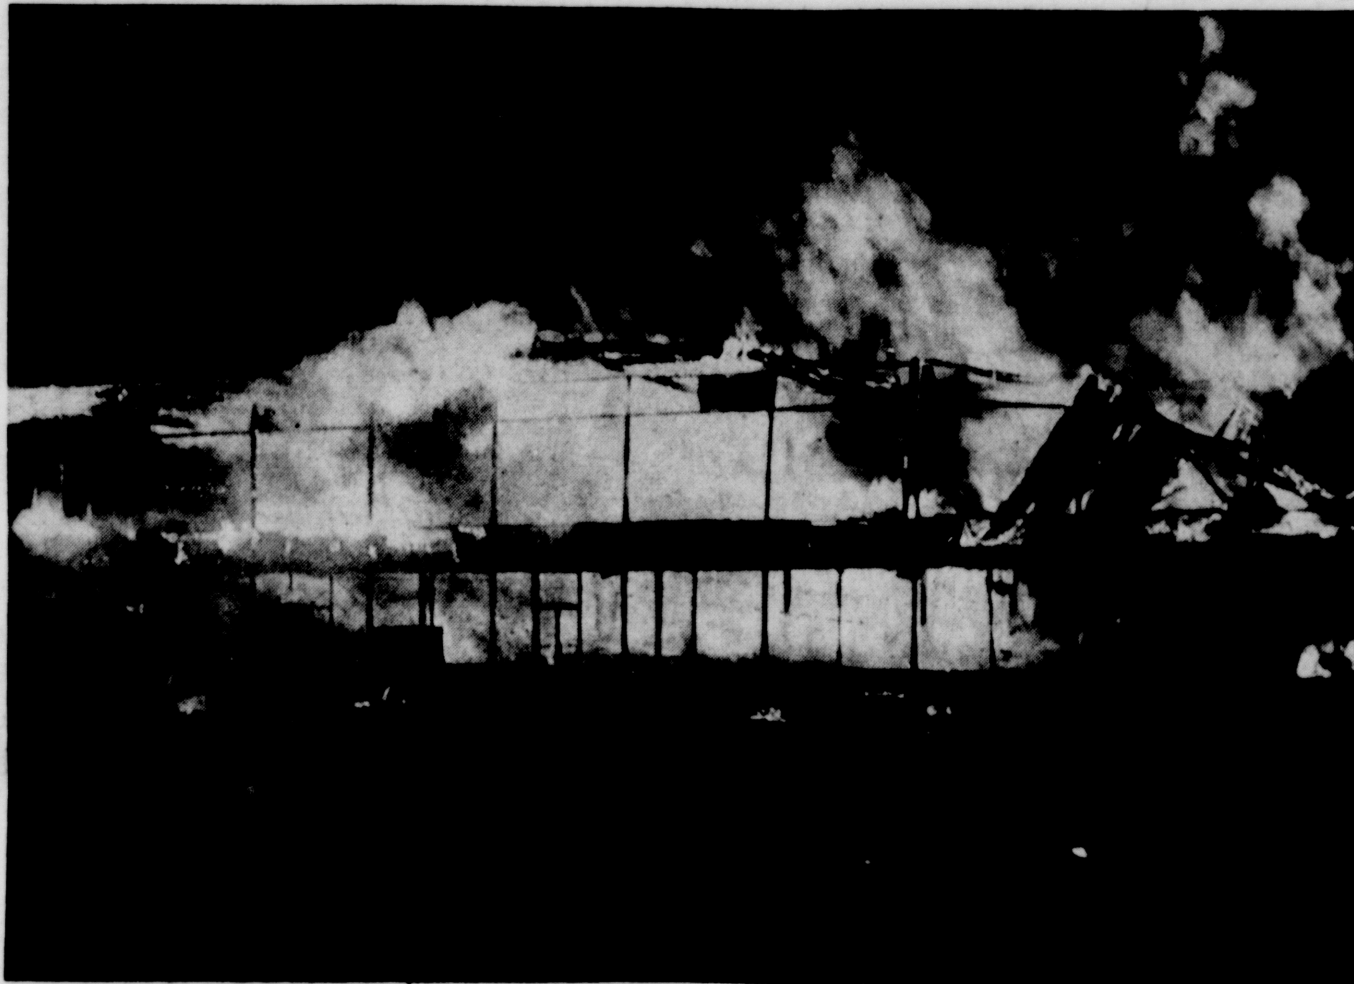

"The vessel was on fire everywhere except for the aft portion," said a radio message from one of three planes from the U.S. 57th Air Rescue Squadron based in the Azores.

"Survivors are in lifeboats and life rafts which have been dropped by U.S. Air Force aircraft. Four vessels are in the area and are picking up survivors. About 60 per cent have been picked up so far."

"However, there are many survivors still in the water. The weather in the area is reported good."

Other accounts told of hun-

Probe Launched By Investigators To Locate Cause

While insurance investigators be in the neighborhood of "a half-million dollars."

Harry R. Bell, general manager, said he "had no idea" of the amount of damage, and could not say definitely if a new clubhouse would be erected.

The fire broke out about 4 p. m. Among the first to discover the blaze were Howard Conner, maintenance supervisor, and Robert Lee, a maintenance employee, who were in the area at the time. Lee said the two men discovered the flames at 4:20.

Marshal Starts Search

A state fire marshal has begun a detailed search for a connection between the Waterford Park fire and four other costly fires on properties owned by James Edwards, track owner, in the past two years.

Chief Earl Flesch of the Newell fire department asked for help in trying to determine the cause of the blaze, and the state fire marshal's office assigned Lt. L. E. Roush of Parkersburg to the job.

Damage Figures Vary

Estimates on the damage varied, but New Cumberland Fire Chief Paul Wigner said it would Newell volunteers were the first to arrive. Most members of the department were busy at home getting ready for a family Christmas party.

In quick succession, four more departments arrived — Chester, Lawrenceville, New Cumberland and Pughtown.

Firemen said they had little chance to save the huge structure. The building was a roaring inferno when the first volunteers arrived. They concentrated on saving the adjoining grandstand.

As the water lines in the grandstand were frozen, firemen used water from their tanker trucks and also ran lines to the Ohio River. The track-owned sprinkler truck also was pressed into service.

The clubhouse was enveloped in flames and the fire had a

Candles Mark Ceremony

Country Ends Mourning For Martyred President

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thousands of candles burned bright in the gathering dusk of Washington as the nation ended a month's mourning for John F. Kennedy.

Sheltered against a biting wind on winter's first day, they symbolized that the late President's ideals are still aglow in the world.

Bareheaded and coatless in brilliant winter sunshine, Kennedy had said in his inaugural address Jan. 20, 1961: "The energy, the faith, the devotion which we bring to this endeavor will light our country and all who serve—and the glow from that fire can truly light the world."

Bareheaded and coatless Sunday night, President Johnson told more than 14,000 gathered at the Lincoln Memorial and the nation by radio and television: "Thirty days and a few hours ago, John Fitzgerald Kennedy, 35th President of the United States, died a martyr's death. The world will not forget what he did here. He will live on in our hearts, which will be his shrine."

Thus, with the rhythm of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, Johnson marked the end of the 30-day official period of mourning he had proclaimed on his predecessor's assassination Nov. 22.

An hour and a half later, the new President turned a switch to light the national Christmas tree behind the White House, leading the nation in a transition from sorrow to the joy of Christmas.

Storm Begins In Wide Area; 4 Inches Due

A storm that began this morning in a wide belt embracing all of the Tri-State District is expected to dump about four inches of the white stuff on the ground before it diminishes tonight, the Ohio forecaster said.

The weatherman said there will be no respite from the snow until late tonight. The mercury will range up to 16 to 24 degrees today. Tuesday will be cloudy and cold with scattered flurries.

Heavy snow warnings were issued for the entire state today as a storm moved north-

Scranton--Will He Or Won't He?

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—An intriguing mystery story—call it "Spotlight on the Sphinx"—is taking shape around William Warren Scranton, the personable young governor of Pennsylvania.

"I don't want to be president of the United States," he said, firmly, in an interview. "I can't conceive of any circumstances in which I would run," he added in one of the strongest disclaimers of interest in the Republican nomination for president he has made.

However, in a news conference, Scranton said former President Dwight D. Eisenhower has urged him to give "deeper thought" to the question of being a candidate.

"I agreed that I would," Scranton said, "although I pointed out to him that I doubted this would change my opinion."

"The meeting with Eisenhower—which included Mrs. Eisenhower and Mrs. Scranton—took place in Eisenhower's private railway car Dec. 14 on a siding near Harrisburg. Scranton gave this version of Eisenhower's statements:

"He said the national scene now was such that he felt a number of persons thought I should be the candidate and that he thought I ought to give a good deal of thought to this matter and think deeply on the subject in view of the change in current circumstances nationally."

"He said some very complimentary things about me personally and my work here in the state. He was very kind about this and suggested that I give deeper thought to it than he believed I had in the past.

"He was quite right in this. I am not a candidate and don't wish to be. I haven't given deep thought to the possibility."

But now, Scranton says, he will think about it.

Newsman asked Scranton if he considers himself qualified to be president. He replied:

"Is anybody fully qualified to

Absentees Return

Democrats Eye Foreign Aid Bill OK By Tuesday

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Democratic leaders, bringing their absent members back to work by planes, predicted they would have enough Democrats on hand today to crack Republican opposition and pass the foreign aid bill by Tuesday at the latest.

And that won't be any too soon for President Johnson, his prestige on the line and his Texas holiday delayed.

He and aides were said to have kept the White House telephone lines humming Sunday trying to whip up support for the measure in calls to congressmen.

And at least one charter flight was reported picking up congressmen in Texas, Louisiana and Georgia who had gone home early for Christmas and was speeding them back to the capital. Who was paying for the flight — and perhaps others — wasn't clear. A spokesman denied the White House was paying the bill.

However, because of House rules a final vote on the $3 billion aid appropriations measure was not expected before Christmas Eve.

But even if the House approves the bill with its controversial provision on government credit guarantees for sales to Soviet bloc countries, the Senate still must act.

And the senators, most of them home for the holidays, have no business scheduled all week and are not likely to vote before Friday, at the earliest.

Loss Of $660 Seen In Entry At Junk Yard

Loss has been estimated at $660, mostly in scrap metal and assorted tools, in a burglary discovered Sunday morning at a combination warehouse-office building at a River Rd. junk yard operated by Samuel and Nathan Caplan, police said.

The intruders hauled away copper tubing and assorted copper valued at $400; brass worth

The Money-Saving Is A Trifle

President Johnson has a deft touch for public impressions. He made a master stroke with an order cutting down use of luxury limousines by executive personnel. The order will be popular with taxpayers — and that's the idea. And because that's the idea, it needs to be made plain that the money saving is a trifle compared with the confidence the presidential order inspires.

The American people need to believe their government can control spending; that it has enough discipline to police itself.

Foreign governments drawing out U. S. gold reserves need to believe this, too. Their confidence is as indispensable as the confidence of the American people.

THERE IS NO simple formula for inspiring confidence. It must be done by dozens of separate moves, all pursuing the objective of making an impression of prudence.

As far as official limousines are concerned, they are status symbols. They and the chauffeurs who drive them signify to all and sundry that here is a king-size big shot. But in the United States king - size big shots do well 'not to advertise their impression of their own extraordinary size. This is a people's government.

We can rest assured that not a single U.S. official will have to keep appointments on foot.

We can be easy in our minds about demoralization as government officials lose some of their luxury limousine privileges. The whole thing's relative. The cars officials will be riding in will still be more than adequate transportation.

GRANTED, official cars are made available to the government at special prices because of the prestige involved. But it isn't the money that looms largest. It's the impression that officials in a people's government are assuming prerogatives of privilege.

Now, if Congress — that co-equal branch which criticizes everybody else but never looks askance at itself — would do something to improve an impression it is lurching higher on the hog than its constituents can pay for, 1964 would look happier all around.

Keep Tragedy Out Of Your Holiday

At holiday periods, it's impossible to over-emphasize the need for safe driving.

With snow falling today and more in the offing, the need for caution becomes even greater.

The Lisbon post of the State Highway Patrol already has appealed for motorists to do everything possible to hold down the accident toll.

The safety suggestions included the following and deserve repeating:

Make certain that your car is in the best possible condition mechanically.

At all times obey the rules of the road and be on the lookout for others' mistakes. As the patrol put it so pointedly, "Drive defensively."

Don't drive after drinking. This is one of the most important things to remember. There's no use kidding yourself, if your social activities include drinking, even small amounts of alcohol effect your ability to properly handle an auto.

Safety rules aren't offered because a law enforcement agency wishes to flout its authority. They are posted to help you — possibly to save your life.

Accept them as such and do your part to keep down traffic mishaps. Holidays are too happy times to be marred by tragedy.

By J. W. Davis

After paying thanks to a long list of those for whose help he was grateful, Goldwater said he did the first draft of his book "Why Not Victory?", but added: "The way I look at it, polishing my prose is not something on which I can spend a lot of time, as enjoyable as that is . . . For the proper expression of the result of that labor, I, for one, depend on those I have mentioned — helpers, ghosts, call them what you will. They are an indispensable part of politics and writing."

Sorensen once said of his teamwork with Kennedy:

"I know so well what he wants to say and how he would say it that he and I can't tell where he leaves off and I leave on."

Incidentally, as for tools of the trade, a visitor to Sorensen's office noted these books on his desk: "A Treasury of Great Speeches," Bartlett's "Familiar Quotations" and "10,000 Jokes and Stories."

A speech has to have more than just style. It has to be delivered well.

As Gen. Hugh (Iron Pants) Johnson of the Franklin D. Roosevelt era said:

"No ghost writer ever permanently made a political silk purse out of an oratorical sow's ear."

Johnson's 'Ghost'

WASHINGTON

Lyndon B. Johnson can do more things than most people. He is a ball of fire, a one-man gang.

But he can't find time to write his own speeches, all by himself.

The President's associates have disclosed that Theodore C. Sorensen, who also was speech writer for President John F. Kennedy on occasion, helped Johnson write his first address to Congress.

This is no slam at Johnson. The business of a presidential ghost writer has ancient and honorable antecedents. For example, Alexander Hamilton had a ghostly hand in the writing of George Washington's famous farewell address.

A president who pays attention to his main job just doesn't have time to make the research and do the word-polishing that a speech requires.

Lots of other public officials, and men in private enterprise too, have turned to ghosts to help them with their speeches, and their other writing. Sorensen helped in the research for the book "Profiles of Courage" which Kennedy wrote before he became president.

Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona provides another example.

What About Christmas?

By Truman Twill

I suppose we should thank the Associated Press for its survey showing that public school officials across the country have not clamped down on Christmas.

But if the idea was to reveal something about the way public schools had interpreted the U.S. Supreme Court ruling against compulsory prayer relative to Christmas, gratitude will have to be diluted with astonishment.

The Associated Press, which has access to everything the Supreme Court ever said about official prayers, knows better than to lend its prestige to a hoax that some of the court's implacable critics have been playing on the nation.

With malice aforethought, these critics have fed the gullible the line that the Supreme Court had ruled against religion. They knew that along with the gullible, who believe anything, they could count on the paranoiacs, who are afraid of everything. They were right. A terrible misrepresentation has been loosed against the Supreme Court.

THE FACT remains that the U.S. Supreme Court has said nothing against religion or the free exercise of religion.

It has declared only that Americans are entitled to do as they please in matters of religion and therefore it is contrary to the Constitution to let public officials tell children what prayers to recite.

So what about Christmas? Isn't Christmas a religious observance?

It is for those who think of it that way. It also is an occasion for a great international outpouring of good will and winter solstice joyfulness that goes on year in and year out independently of any religious doctrine.

Christmas is celebrated by non-Christians in the United States and many other countries.

The thought does not come easily to minds not prepared for it, but the winter solstice was a celebration long before there was Christianity.

THERE NEVER has been any trouble about Christmas in public schools. It has

This 'n That

The first president of the Continental Congress during the American Revolution was Peyton Randolph of Virginia. It was on Sept. 5, 1774, that delegates from 12 Colonies (all except Georgia) met in Philadelphia and organized the Continental Congress.

Of America's 17 million dog-owning families, 80 per cent own one dog, 14 per cent have two dogs, 4 per cent have three and 2 per cent have four or more dogs. American dogs consume about nine billion pounds of food per year.

A surprising two-thirds of all American women past the age of 30 don't smoke at all, according to a recent poll. And of those who do, more than seven out of 10 smoke the filter-tip type of cigarette.

According to latest figures, the sunniest place in the United States is Phoenix, Ariz. The rainiest is Mobile, Ala. And the windiest is Oklahoma City, Okla.

Communists Reap American Dollars

By Victor Riesel

Communist East Germany, builder of the Berlin Wall, is being bolstered by Yuletide by millions of American dollars. These dollars pay for East German goods imported into the United States for the Christmas gift trade. Similar profits on the Yuletide season are being made by allies of the East Berlin regime. Glass Christmas ornaments, toys, games and scores of other items have been pouring into the United States from behind the Iron Curtain.

The total East European Communist take from the United States is in the tens of millions of dollars. The smallest of these sales is Hungary's toy trade in our country.

Angered by the East Berlin "administration's" delay in opening The Wall, and by previous harassments of United States troops on the Autobahn, big Joe Curran, head of the National Maritime Union, had some of his aides research the Sino-Soviet import trade in the United States.

CURRAN'S colleagues discovered that the bitterly anti-United States regime sold millions of dollars worth of Christmas items such as cameras, art, artificial fruit and flowers, typewriters, china ornaments and even mink in the United States. In 1962, these totaled some $3 million. All received Department of Commerce import licenses.

From Communist Czechoslovakia have come glass Christmas tree ornaments, bicycles, toys, games and chocolates.

From Hungary, out of which the Freedom Fighters fled just seven years ago, have come not only toys, but games and bicycles.

These are but the gift trade. Millions of dollars in additional commercial materials such as glass, cars, motorcycles, gloves and hat bodies are being sold here. These cut into employment in the United States.

The most successful Communist sales organization is in Poland. Communist factories and firms there have been selling the United States over $45 million a year worth of goods from mink to benzine. Much of this trade is for our Christmas season, too.

FROM POLAND annually comes almost a million dollars worth of toys, games, dolls, and linens.

Joe Curran's indignation is stirred by the fact that these countries are among the heavy suppliers of Fidel Castro's Cuban economic state enterprises. The maritime labor chief also is apprehensive over the decline in jobs in our own "gift" industries.

Curran is further aroused by the conviction that the Soviet bloc, especially in the wheat deals, wants to have trade terms all its own way.

The Russians — who are buying wheat, not only for themselves, but also for the Eastern European satellites, who are negotiating for grain on their own — refuse to use American vessels in these transactions.

The other day Curran said he does not want to interfere with official State Department policy on his own. But he plans to urge the national AFL-CIO to take some action to pressure our government into at least getting a quid pro quo out of the "bloc."

Curran, backed by other maritime leaders, such as the longshoremen's president, Ted Gleason, will ask the AFL-CIO high command to move on this front at its mid-winter session next Feb. 17.

GLEASON HAS been angered particularly by the Polish Communist leaders. They are depriving the Polish people of vast quantities of food, Gleason said, pointing to the statistics on Polish government sales in the United States.

The Warsaw regime sells about $26 million worth of hams, pork and casein (a protein milk derivative) in the United States annually while their own people go hungry.

Gleason has been briefed by high government officials on the possibilities of hunger behind the Iron Curtain in coming months. These reports were made to Gleason in his ILLA headquarters at a 3 p.m. conference with Under Secretary of Commerce Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. and Assistant Secretary of Labor James Reynolds on Wednesday, Dec. 11.

They told Gleason — I learn from other sources — that U.S. intelligence reports indicate there will be heavy rationing and breadless days imposed if we do not help feed the Communist bloc people. Yet their Communist regimes sell food in the United States in order to get our hard currency.

"The Communists are getting the aid of the civilized world," Gleason remarked the other day. "Let them at least be civilized and rip down that wall."

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO—From a motion picture news reel which she witnessed in a local theater, Mrs. R. H. Dorff of Ephraim St. located her brother, Carl Fulton of Breckenridge, Colo., whom she had not seen for 48 years.

Eleven hundred children in East Liverpool, Chester, Newell and Midland were guests of the East Liverpool Elks Lodge at its annual Christmas party, while more than 200 dinner baskets were distributed to the needy by the Salvation Army.

The Southern Columbiana County Bar Association elected Atty. Charles Boyd to succeed Atty. Walter B. Hill.

TEN YEARS AGO—Mrs. Lucille Porter was named relief director at Wellsville.

William L. Smith was named scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 11 of the Emmanuel Presbyterian Church.

Dr. F. J. Benedict, Dr. Zavel Sigal and E. M. Wallover were named director of the Midland Council.

TWENTY YEARS AGO—Vincent J. McGeehan was appointed foreman for the waterworks pumping station and Robert Wheatley city engineer.

The Rev. Paul Fitch of Spencer, Ohio, arrived in Chester to assume the pastorate of the Church of the Nazarene.

Lee's AME Chapel in Wellsville suffered $5,000 damage from fire.

TEN YEARS AGO—Mrs. Lucille Porter was named relief director at Wellsville.

William L. Smith was named scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 11 of the Emmanuel Presbyterian Church.

Dr. F. J. Benedict, Dr. Zavel Sigal and E. M. Wallover were named director of the Midland Council.

Today In History

Today is Monday Dec. 23, the 357th day of 1963. There are 8 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1823, the Troy, N.Y., Sentinel first published Clement Moore's famous Christmas classic, "A Visit from St. Nicholas." The selection was published anonymously, without the author's knowledge.

On this date: In 1873, George Washington resigned his commission as commander-in-chief at the State House in Annapolis, Md., and retired to his home at Mount Vernon.

In 1921, President Warren Harding signed a bill to provide $20 million in famine relief for the Russians.

In 1948, former Japanese dictator Hideki Tojo and six of his collaborators were hanged for war crimes.

Five years ago — Pope John XX — delivered his annual Christmas message in which he called on Christians to unite against the threat of communism.

Will Economy Measures Hold Up?

There appears over a tiny grave, it has been said, a stone with this inscription: "Little David. Died at the age of 5 because of eating green apples. His parents in their grief have this consolation: They never denied him anything he wanted."

Perhaps when a monument is raised by the Soviet over a busted and ruined America, this inscription might be appropriate: "This nation, conceived in liberty, went broke because its people used their liberty to elect representatives and presidents who gave them whatever they asked."

I shall be more precise. That thrifty man who once was vice president, John N. Garner told me one time: "We can have a non-political president, but we can never have a nonpolitical Congress."

Those observations came to mind as I noted the shrieks and wails of the two nominally Republican senators, Kenneth Keating and Jacob Javits, along with several Democratic members of the House from New York when Defense Secretary McNamara, under orders from President Johnson, proposed to terminate several unnecessary installations in that state.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, elected because of his promise to "do more for Massachusetts," and Sen. Hugh Scott have protested the closing of Naval shipyards in Boston and Philadelphia.

Thus, in the line before the pie counter Republicans and Democrats are indistinguishable.

WE SHALL SEE whether President Johnson, eyeing the fat electoral votes in California, Massachusetts, and New York, will really carry through these economies.

It's one thing to preach economy. It's quite another to practice it. For already the administration has backed away from some proposals to cut defense costs.

This uproar raises a serious question. Are all the billions in the defense budget necessary to protect us against an enemy in war, or are many of them merely to make work?

Our system of government is so constituted that only a president who is willing to risk his reelection can appreciably cut federal expenses.

Down Pentagon Way

By Laurence Barrett

For nuclear toys Bonn sighs? Well, then, multilateralize. British and Germans, Turks and Yanks — All with fingers in atomic pies. Gee, let's multilateralize! —From a Pentagon lavatory wall.

Incredible as it seems, there really is a word "multilateralize" in the strangest of foreign languages, Pentagonese. It seems to mean, when applied to nuclear weapons, a system in which control and operation are shared by a number of allies.

The United States wants NATO to build a multilateral nuclear force, a fleet in which each missile-bearing ship would be manned by crews drawn from at least three countries.

Germany likes this idea because treaties prevent Germany from owning her own nuclear weapons. It yearns for this status symbol.

The other NATO allies look on the scheme with varying degrees of trepidation and interest. The only exception is France, which scoffs at the whole idea.

The American proposal has given rise to others. The Dutch said the other day it would be nice if the Americans agreed to throw their newest and best missile, the Minuteman, into the common hopper.

Then the assembly of the Western European union said that all the West's nuclear arms — that is, the U.S. nuclear armory — should become mutual property.

ALL OF THIS sounds very democratic and upthunk, but the military leaders of all concerned countries treat it like a bad joke. And numerous jokes, good and bad, are being made about it.

If we're so anxious to integrate, some people are saving, why not start at home? Take the three armed services and the office of the secretary of defense, for instance. Frequently these four distinct entities appear to be working for different employers. Any day now we're going to see stories about the terrible things being perpetrated within the quartet as final budget decisions are made.

There is really very little hope for progress here. After all, the Pentagon can't even get Congress won't do it because the people back home won't permit it.

Chambers of commerce all over the land love to listen to speakers talking about economy. But after the applause has subsided, resolutions are passed demanding that their senators and congressmen get money for their communities.

LET'S TAKE a look at one example, Naval shipyards.

The Defense Department was ready with plans to close the Navy's shipyards in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, and San Francisco.

Top studies by reliable firms, one by Ernst and Ernst, and another by Arthur Anderson and Company, reported that the work done by Navy shipyards could be done at much less cost in private shipyards.

Some of these private yards have been losing money because of government competition. When they are permitted to do government work, their profits are taxable and return money to the government.

These Navy yards, antique monuments to the past and at present evidences of political expediency, have not been made exempt from the so-called "economy drive" of the President.

The Navy complex, with an estimated net worth of $5 billion, consists of 11 yards.

ALL THESE are located on highly valuable land. None pays a dime to the communities in taxes.

Where Navy yards were closed, new private industries would buy and occupy these sites, with new jobs and tax returns to the public. And the Navy's work would be efficiently done.

The comptroller general of the United States has issued report after report making recommendations which, if adopted, would save vast sums. Secretary McNamara has in his office equally worthy plans to economize. But politics has up to now frustrated these economies.

We cannot have an economy omelet without breaking some local political eggs. President Johnson is the new cook. Let us see if he has the courage to break the shells, before the 1964 election.

a meeting of minds on a common belt buckle.

Another suggestion is to start at the bottom of the military pyramid instead at the top. For the next two years, say, the Turkish army should accept only English recruits, only Greeks could get into the American army and the Norwegians, of course, would have to go to Italy. It would all be very educational and kind of friendly.

A variation of this would be to allow soldiers to marry only girls of another nationality. The United States has the largest military establishment and therefore this country would get the largest influx of foreign girls.

The American women's lobby would scream objections. Let it. The operation would make American females less uppity.

OF COURSE, it would be a delicate and difficult job matching mates properly. At last there would be a humane, important mission for Secretary McNamara's legion of electronic computers.

Mr. McNamara loves to create new, joint agencies and it is very easy to picture him announcing establishment of OSP (Office of Spouse Procurement).

Once the procedural matters shook down, everything would be fine. Every couple of years we would switch around the countries from which eligible mates could come. In a few generations everything, including the language and food problems, would be solved.

But the State Department wants to launch the MLF fleet soon. Plans are going ahead for an experiment in which a tri-national crew will try to keep some poor ship afloat.

Dairy Groups Condemn Milk Withholding Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three dairy organizations said today that proposals being made in the Midwest to withhold milk from markets to force processors and distributors to pay higher prices would be ruinous to dairymen.

They said in a statement that the withholding action — being discussed by the National Farmers Organization — would force consumer prices of dairy products to levels that would turn consumers to competitive foods. They said butter would go to $1.20 a pound and cheese prices would increase 20 cents a pound over present levels.

The statement was issued by the National Creameries Association, the Wisconsin Council of Agriculture Cooperatives, and the Minnesota Dairy Products Association.

They said a lengthy study of previous farm product withholding operations had shown them to be unsuccessful.

The reduction in consumption, estimated at over 50 per cent of the commercial market for butter and a large portion of the cheese and non-fat dairy products, would in fact, the three organizations said, ruin the Midwest dairy farmer who produces milk for manufacturing purposes.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department will open its sign-up period Feb. 10 for farmer participation in next year's voluntary feed grain program. The period will end March 27.

The program seeks to limit production of corn, sorghum grain and barley by offering land-diversion and price support payments as well as price support loans to growers who hold feed grain plantings at least 20 per cent below their base acreages for these grains. There is a surplus of feed grains.

As in past years, the sign-up will be conducted by local agricultural stabilization and conservation committees.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Land may be the farmer's major asset, but one would never know it from his concern—or lack of it—over who inherits his property.

This is a conclusion reached by the Agriculture Department in connection with a recent survey in seven Southern states showing that only 13 per cent of the landowners in the area had made out wills. A little more than one-third of the owners who were 75 years old or older had spelled out the inheritance of their estates. No landowner under 25 years had done so.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government is frequently asked who is considered to be a farm resident.

To be counted in the farm population, a person must live in a rural area on a place of 10 acres or more and sell at least $50 worth of farm products a year.

This definition by the Census Bureau also regards as a farm resident one who lives on a place of less than 10 acres if he sells at least $250 worth of agricultural products a year.

Museum Obtains Fossil Collection

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Kopf fossil collection, containing rare specimens believed to be 400 million years old, has been acquired by the University of Cincinnati for its paleontology museum.

Dr. Kenneth E. Caster, museum curator, said all of the fossils have not yet been identified and it will take four persons several years to complete the cataloging.

The fossils come from the Buffalo, N.Y., area, Niagara Falls and Ontario, Canada. Much of the new material comes from rocks of about the same age as the rocks of the Cincinnati hills, about 400 million years old, Caster said.

The collection was gathered over 30 years by the Max Kopf family of Buffalo, N.Y. Caster praised the family for its great care in preserving all data with their materials.

100 Attend Opening Of Seminar On Rights

CINCINNATI (AP) — About 100 delegates, 14 to 25 years old, heard talks on psychology and segregation at the opening session today of a civil rights seminar sponsored by the Labor Zionist Youth.

Attending the seminar, which ends Wednesday, are participants from Ohio, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Illinois, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Canada. Four other regional seminars are being held simultaneously.

Burns Claim Man, 28

XENIA, Ohio (AP) — Homer Hurleigh, 28, of Fairborn, burned critically Saturday when his clothing caught fire in an automobile, died late Sunday in Miami Valley Hospital. Firemen said they believe Hurleigh's wool sweater caught fire from a cigarette after the man fell asleep.

Officers Charge Stepson Of Star In Poison Effort

MUNICH, Germany (AP) — Police said today they have arrested Michael Thiess, 18-year-old stepson of Hollywood star Robert Taylor, on suspicion of attempted murder.

Police said the youth is accused of serving poisoned tea to his father, 49-year-old Munich film producer Georg Thiess.

Formal charges have not yet been filed against the boy. Under German law, he can be held during investigation by the state prosecutor.

The boy's mother, Ursula

Thiess, married Taylor in 1954. Police said the youth moved in with his father and the two argued in February.

Police Check Sunday Closings In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP) — County police issued no citations Sunday to alleged violators of Ohio's Sunday closing law because "It's just too near Christmas," said Carl Meyer of the Sheriff's Department.

City police, however, made purchases at two small grocery stores as evidence for action to be taken by the Prosecutor's Office.

Jury Report Due In Bribery Case

CLEVELAND (AP) — Mrs. Hamilton W. Wright of Gates Mills, foreman of the Cuyahoga County grand jury investigating bribery charges stemming from a caucus of Democratic councilmen, says she expects the jury to announce its findings today.

Key witnesses were to be heard as the jury resumed hearing the case today. Among those subpoenaed were councilmen James V. Stanton and Michael Fatica and Cleveland Plain Dealer reporter Todd Simon.

Stanton has been accused by Fatica of offering a bribe for Fatica's vote in a caucus election for Council president. Stanton won over Jack P. Russell, the longtime incumbent.

"We intend to have it over with tomorrow," Mrs. Wright said Sunday night, "unless some extraordinary evidence is presented to us."

The jury began its probe last Wednesday and recessed over the weekend.

Back To Work

MIAMI (AP) — The Northeast Miami Woman's Club collected 500 golf balls for use by patients at South Florida State Hospital. Then they started a new campaign. The hospital needed golf clubs.

Reporter's Account

Big Fire Seemed 'Castle In Flame'

(Charles R. Cronin, Review reporter, wrote this eye-witness account of the blaze that leveled the Waterford Park Race Track clubhouse Saturday night.)

By CHARLES R. CRONIN It was like watching a castle go up in flames.

From Route 66, the view of the costly fire that destroyed the luxurious clubhouse at Waterford Park race track was spectacular.

A wall of crimson glowed brightly against the expanse of white snow covering the landscaped acreage of the plant, visible for miles from both sides of the Ohio River.

Moving closer, one could make out twisted steel girders, melted into question marks by the intense heat.

CLOUDS OF black smoke billowed hundreds of feet into the air, mixing with glowing firebrands that were caught up in a stiff wind and showered across the infield landing strip.

From the rear, the white block building was a burning firebox, with flames licking through the windows and shooting through the roof into the frigid air.

The temperature was well below freezing when the fire broke out Saturday afternoon at approximately 4.

STRANGELY enough, there were only a few streams of water being played on the flames from bundled-up firemen, as is seldom the case in most serious conflagrations.

Firemen stood by helplessly while the elaborate interior gushed with flames and smoke. They concentrated their efforts on preventing damage to the adjacent grandstand.

The wind, which turned out to be a blessing for shivering firemen at the scene, created massive funnel-shaped whirlwinds of smoke and burning embers that swept along the fringes of the crumbling building.

MANY LOCAL women were employed in the chandelier-bedecked clubhouse restaurant during the race meeting last summer, among them Mrs. Sadye Nally of Congo.

"It makes me sick, real sick, my job went up in smoke," said

Mrs. Nally, an employee there for six years.

She was among the members of the auxiliaries of the Newell fire department and American Legion Post 114 who served coffee and sandwiches to firemen at the scene.

BROOMHALL'S Market in Newell donated sandwiches for the firemen who stayed on duty all of Saturday night to prevent the smoldering ruins from spreading to other parts of the racing plant.

The spectacular fire interrupted plans of both firemen and Legionnaires for Christmas parties with their families.

Coffee to be used at the parties was taken to the race track for the firemen and a radio appeal was made for paper cups. Mrs. Mae Hupp of the Legion auxiliary said the response "was real good."

ABOUT 23 waitresses worked in the dining room last summer. Approximately 50 were to be employed in the new Cap and Whip Club dining room.

The Imperial Room in the clubhouse was elaborately decorated and featured marble and a huge mirror overlooking a fireplace. It was air-conditioned.

Mrs. Nally said she was shown a $125 watch purchased by Harry R. Bell, general manager, as a Christmas gift. Found in the ruins, it was reduced to "charcoal," she said.

THERE WERE reports, as yet unconfirmed, that a safe containing $50,000 came crashing from the penthouse of the track owner on the third story into the ruins of the jockey quarters in the basement during the fire.

James P. Edwards, and a business combine purchased the beautiful mile track in 1957 for approximately $3 million from A. J. Boyle.

Car Crash Hurts Wellsville Youth

A 15-year-old Wellsville youth is in "fair" condition today at City Hospital with severe facial injuries suffered in a one-car crash Saturday afternoon about 5 on a township road off Route 39 near Highlandtown.

Thomas Culp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Culp, 1620 Clark Ave., was a passenger in the car driven by his father.

The father said he and his son were en route to purchase a Christmas tree. He pulled over for an oncoming car and went into a snow bank along the road. The car then slid into a tree.

The boy was thrown against the windshield. He suffered a split nose, lacerations of the cheek and left upper eyelid and a possible fractured leg. The boy underwent facial surgery for about five hours. The father suffered body bruises.

Same Area Hit Twice By Failure Of Power

Fifty to 75 homes in the same residential area were without electric service twice over the weekend after a line fuse blew out in Ohio Power Co. lines at E. 6th and College Sts.

The failure affected sections of Vine St., Thompson Ave., Fawcett St. and Blakeley St.

The first failure came at 5:30 p. m. Saturday and was corrected at 7:50. The second began at 12:45 p. m. Sunday. It was corrected at 1:45.

Cigarette Seen Cause

Woman Burned Critically By Fire In Chair At Home

A 60-year-old city woman, seriously burned at her home early Sunday morning, was in "critical" condition today at City Hospital. Her husband was treated for burns suffered while attempting to put out her flaming clothing.

Another city woman was admitted to the hospital and four other persons were treated Saturday.

Mrs. Etta Burlingame, 728 Green Ln., was admitted Sunday at 2:20 a. m. with third degree burns of the lower back and hips and second degree burns of the left shoulder.

She apparently fell asleep while smoking a cigarette, which set fire to the chair in which she was seated.

She was found by her husband, Harold A. Burlingame, who suffered first degree burns of the fingers of the right hand and a third degree burn to the tip of his ring finger while attempting to extinguish her burning clothing.

Mrs. Mable Smith, 62, of R.D.

1 is in "good" condition today with an injury to her right arm suffered when she fell in the driveway at home Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Florence Stafford, 62, of Chester fractured her chestbone when she fell on ice Saturday night.

Mrs. Mary Mickey, 55, of 1548 Pennsylvania Ave., a beautician, was treated for a laceration of the right index finger suffered when she cut herself with a razor blade while cutting hair.

Cathy Talbott, 20, daughter of Earl Talbott, of Newell, was admitted overnight with a possible concussion suffered when struck by a swinging door while attending a dance at Chester City Hall Saturday night.

Donald Hancock, 13, son of Donald Hancock, 1450 Pennsylvania Ave., also was admitted overnight with a fractured left wrist suffered when he fell from a sled Saturday afternoon.

4 Die In Bid To Get Coins From Church

OTTAWA (AP)—Four persons were shot to death Sunday when two armed brothers apparently tried to steal the collection boxes from a Roman Catholic rectory in Ottawa while Mass was being celebrated in the church next door. A fifth person was wounded slightly.

Police said there was no money in the rectory.

Police said Roger Binette, 21, shot and killed himself after police and parishioners cornered him and his brother, Reginald, 17, in an upper floor of the rectory.

A detective persuaded Reginald to surrender after parishioners surrounded the building. Reginald was charged with capital murder and if convicted will get a life prison sentence. Minors cannot be hanged for capital murder in Canada.

The youths' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Binette, were attending noon Mass in the Church of Christ the King. The father rushed with other men in the congregation to the rectory and ducked back as bullets flew. He did not know who was inside.

The shooting also took the lives of Paul Mercier of Sherbrooke, Que., scoutmaster of the Parish's Boy Scout troop; Albert Guindon, about 45, housekeeper and niece of the parish priest, the Rev. Guillaume Chevrier; and Doralise Bechard, 65, who shared a second-floor apartment in the rectory with her sister.

Police said they did not fire a shot. They said the brothers each had two guns and masks were found in their pockets.

Mass was nearly over when a second housekeeper, Agathe Jensen, rushed into the church and told Father Chevrier two men had broken into the rectory.

150 Attend Yule Fete Of Hookstown Legion

About 150 members of South Side American Legion Post 952 and auxiliary attended a Christmas party and coverdish dinner Saturday night at the post home at Hookstown.

Cartoons and a film on Christmas were shown and Santa distributed treats. It was announced that the auxiliary's card party scheduled for Dec. 31 has been canceled.

Church Holds Yule Service

Special Christmas services at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church began Sunday, the Fourth Sunday of Advent, when the Primary Department of the Sunday School participated in the regular morning service. It presented special Christmas selections.

Following the service, a Christmas party was held in the Parish Hall for the entire congregation. Special Christmas favors were given the young people.

A traditional carol service and the celebration of Holy Communion will be held Christmas Eve beginning at 10:30 p. m. and will include congregational singing and a special anthem by the church choir and organ selections by Miss Eleanor Jane Bennett, church organist.

Another celebration of Holy Communion will be held Christmas morning at 10:45.

The college students and men in the armed services will be honored Thursday at 11:30 a. m. when St. Stephen's Day will be observed. A luncheon will follow at Travelers Hotel with the Rev. D. R. Salisbury as host.

The entire congregation will be guests of Rev. and Mrs. Salisbury, Sunday afternoon at the rectory on Thompson Ave.

Veterans' Group Chooses Harmon

Wilbur Harmon of East Liverpool was named commander of Midland Barracks 2119 of World War I Veterans at a meeting Sunday, at the home of Midland American Legion Post 481. He succeeds Elmer Kessler of Midland.

Other officers named were: William Smith of East Liverpool, senior vice commander; Robert Laughlin of Lawrenceville, junior vice commander; R. F. Dunn of East Liverpool, quartermaster.

John Shannon of Midland, chaplain, and Leo McGeehan of Midland, judge advocate. Herbert Burgoyne of Midland, Edward Watson of East Liverpool, and Cecil (Red) Craft of Industry were named trustees for three years.

Dunn, Harmon, Laughlin, Burgoyne, Lou Provost and Luke Cadman were named as the barrack's delegates to the County Council and district meetings.

The installation is set Jan. 26 at the Post 481 home.

Liner

dreds hauled from lifeboats and from the sea onto the decks of ships.

The line's spokesman in London said it appeared about 470 persons had been rescued thus far. At that time, radio messages from the scene indicated the total saved was considerably higher.

The British liner Stratheden radioed she had picked up 300 survivors, some injured, plus some dead. The Argentine freighter Salta was alternately reported to have from 220 to 400 survivors. The British Montcalm said it had 100 survivors and the Argentine liner Rio Grande another 50.

The Salta raced as hard as her engines would pound for Funchal in Madeira. The British consul at Funchal said:

"There is terrible anxiety here. There were several British schoolboys aboard who were coming from England to spend Christmas with their parents who are resident business folk in the Madeira Islands."

Some passengers were newlyweds. Others were retired people seeking a sunshine Christmas holiday.

The adult passengers had been singing, dancing and walking arm and arm on the deck when the fire erupted and forced them to scramble into lifeboats or plunge into the sea.

The passengers left Southampton last Thursday for a cruise to Madeira, Tenerife and the Canary Islands, in the Atlantic off northwest Africa.

Then shortly before midnight came the first ominous wireless message telling of fire aboard. It was followed early this morning by this final anguished message:

"SOS from Lakonia. Last time. I cannot stay any more in the wireless cabin. We are leaving the ship. Please help immediately."

Traffic

YONZ TOLD Patrolman L. E. Richard, the investigating officer, that he was driving north on Avondale about 15 miles an hour when he felt a bump at the front end of his car. Stopping to investigate, he found the injured child.

The officer said his investigation showed the child was riding a sled in a gutter that leads from Oak St. and Indiana Ave. to Avondale St.

The sled went down the gutter and passed behind two parked cars at the bottom of the grade, he said. Then the sled emerged onto Avondale St. striking the right front wheel of the car, he said.

Police listed as witnesses: Clarice Reed, 707 Avondale St.; Randall Karns, 845 Avondale St.; and David Morse of St. Clair Ave.

It was one of a series of weekend traffic mishaps in East Liverpool. Several were blamed on skids.

A COLLISION at Walnut St. and Bradshaw Ave. Saturday about 5:30 p. m. damaged a 1960 two-door sedan driven by Edmund Knight, 42, of Glenmoor and a 1957 auto operated by Harry Pinkerton, 24, of 1123 White St., Wellsville, officers said.

Knight said he was halted for a traffic signal when his car was hit from the rear by Pinkerton's. The Wellsville man said he attempted to halt, but his car slid on icy pavement.

The crash damaged the rear deck lid of Knight's auto and the front of Pinkerton's car, police said.

A skid also was blamed for a mishap Saturday at 11:55 a. m. on Ceramic St. that damaged a 1959 sedan driven by Leonard Hanlon, 41, of Logan St. and a 1964 model truck driven by Walter Lucas, 26, of Moundsville and owned by Garvin's Jersey Farms, Inc., of Wheeling, police said.

THE TRUCK driver said he applied his brakes as Hanlon's car approached, causing the truck to slide on a slanting section of street and hit the auto. There was damage to the left front of the truck, police said.

Minor damage resulted in a mishap Saturday at 10:10 p. m. on the parking lot at the Loblaw, Inc., market on Bradshaw Ave., police said.

A 1956 four-door sedan driven by James J. Staley, 26, of 1120 Vine St. hit a parked 1964 four-door sedan owned by George Leonard Shaw of Fredericktown, police said.

Staley said he was backing and did not see the Shaw car, police said. There was damage to the left front fender and headlight of the Fredericktown auto, officers said.

A 1961 sedan owned by Ruth and Gilbert Moore, 901 North St., was damaged Sunday morning when struck by a hit-skip car while parked on Jennings Ave. 30 feet north of North St., police said.

The mishap damaged both left doors and a rear panel of the Moore car, officers said. Moore told police his car was hit while parked in front of his home.

A collision at 6:38 p. m. Sunday at the junction of the Freeway and Dresden Ave. damaged a 1963 two-door sedan driven by James Lee Phillips, 22, of Akron and a 1955 four-door sedan driven by Everson Hall of Park Way, police said.

Phillips told police his car was halted when it was struck from the rear. Hall said Phillips halted and he was unable to stop because his car skidded on icy pavement.

'Tampering' Case Dropped,
Man Gets Fine For Drinking

A Wellsville man was fined on an intoxication charge today in Municipal Court after a charge of tampering with a city man's parked auto Thursday night was dismissed on the recommendation of Asst. Solicitor Richard J. Clark.

Arthur W. Clark of Commerce St., Wellsville, was fined $15 and costs by Acting Municipal Judge Paul Tobin after a guilty plea had been entered by his counsel, Atty. George Aronson, along with a plea in mitigation.

The assistant solicitor told the court: "Justice would be served better if we dismiss the tampering charge and substitute a straight intoxication count."

The tampering charge had been filed by police after Clark was taken into custody on the complaint of John Detchon of Park Way, who said the Wellsville man got into his idling car and backed it approximately 20 feet before he was stopped. It was the second time that Clark had moved the car within a few minutes, Detchon told officers.

A hearing for Charles W. Hoppel of R. D. 3, accused of being in physical control of an auto while intoxicated, was continued until Tuesday morning after the motorist advised the court he had to appear in Juvenile Court this morning.

Hoppel was cited by police Friday night on Dresden Ave. He posted a $207.50 bond for his hearing.

Joseph P. DaLanzo, 2106 Chester Ave., Wellsville, was fined $5 and costs after pleading guilty to a charge of crashing a traffic signal at Webber Way and Jefferson St. Sunday at 4 a. m. Acting Judge Tobin suspended the fine on payment of costs.

A hearing for Robert H. Williams, 1057 Hillcrest Rd., Wellsville, on a charge of driving without an operator's permit was continued until Jan. 6 to allow the motorist time to obtain a license. Williams, who pleaded guilty, was cited at 5:15 a. m. Saturday. Steven Alan Birns of the YMCA forfeited a $17.50 bond on a speeding charge filed by the State Highway Patrol. Birns was cited Sunday at 10:45 p. m. on Route 30 for speeding 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone.

Mrs. Frances Shawke was in charge of arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Vicki Willis, Mrs. Daisy Richmond and Mrs. Audrey Johnson.

The program included readings by Mrs. Frances Taylor "The Christmas Story" and "The Bells of Christmas."

Mrs. Beryl Lightner sang "O Holy Night" and "Birthday of a King." Mrs. Shawke, accompanist, also played a piano medley. Douglas Sanford sang "Away In a Manger" with Mrs. Taylor accompanist.

The group enjoyed caroling and a gift exchange.

There will be no sessions in January and February with the next March 20. Miss Margaret Baum is social chairman, assisted by Mrs. Eunice Hogenfield.

Local Girl Becomes Bride In Ceremonies Saturday

Miss Alicia Martha Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Thompson of Park Blvd., became the bride of Marine Lt. Michael William Anderson, son of Mrs. Charles Kearns of Chicago, Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the chapel of the Naval Air Station at Glenview, Ill.

The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Fred Bauer of Falls Church, Va. The bride's mother was escorted by her nephew, Franklin Allison Jr. of Pittsburgh. The bridesmaids were Miss Bonnie McLaren of East Liverpool and Miss Diana Swift of Chicago. The best man was Geoffrey Anderson of Chicago, a brother of the bridegroom.

A reception followed at the officers' club. The bride is a graduate of Shipley School of Philadelphia, and Northwestern University, from where her husband also was graduated.

The newlyweds will reside at Camp Lejeune, N. C., where the bridegroom will be stationed. Attending from here were Atty. and Mrs. William H. Voderrey Jr. of Armstrong Ln. and Mr. and Mrs. Everson Hall and daughter, Miss Julie Hall, of Park Blvd., and John T. Hall of Elysian Way.

A gift exchange was held by ONO 500 Club members Thursday night at a Christmas party in the home of Mrs. Betty Beadnell of Hammondsville.

Prizes went to Mrs. Donna Verzell, Mrs. Judy Surace and the hostess. Guests were Mrs. Gail Grimm and Mrs. Sue Cornwell. Lunch was served at a table with a seasonal setting.

Next meeting will be Jan. 23.

Officers and committee chairmen of the Women's Association of the Covenant United Presbyterian Church were installed by Mrs. Ruth Frischkorn at a meeting Thursday night in the social rooms.

Taking office were Mrs. William Barker, president; Mrs. Leo Sayre, vice president; Mrs. Janet Moore, secretary, and Mrs. Norman Bell, treasurer.

Committee chairmen are: Mrs. George Lewis, Bible study; Mrs. Frank Leyda, ways and means; Mrs. Harold Armstrong, program; Mrs. Edna Reed, sewing projects; Mrs. George Elliott, world service, and Mrs. Emmet Pelley, fellowship.

Mrs. Barker opened the meeting with prayer. For devotions, Mrs. Lewis read Matt. 2 and a Christmas story, "Little Boy Down the Lane" (Grace Nowell Crowell).

Mrs. Barker gave an article on "Shepherds" Mrs. Wanda Hanlon sang "There's a Song in the Air" accompanied by Mrs. Dora DuMoulin, who also accompanied the group in carol singing.

Instead of a Christmas exchange, a donation of canned foods was collected to be given to the welfare department for the needy.

Refreshments were served from a buffet table decorated in keeping with the Yule season. Hostesses were Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Euel LeMasters.

Next meeting will be Jan. 16.

Members of the Friday Nites 500 Club were entertained at a Christmas dinner and gift exchange by Mrs. Bessie Carolio of Lincoln Ave. Friday night.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Theresa Lambright, Mrs. Olive Whitaker, the hostess and Mrs. Lee Crawford.

The club will meet Jan. 3 at the Crawford home on Commerce St.

210 Attend Christmas Party Held At Chester

A total of 210 attended a children's Christmas party given by Local Union 638, Printing Specialties and Paper Products, of East Liverpool, Saturday at the Chester American Legion home.

Santa Claus distributed gifts, and refreshments were served. Lee Hyder, former local president, played Santa Claus.

The party was for children of employees of the National Church Supply Co. of Chester and American Paper Products Co. of Boardman.

A party was held for adults in the evening. Jerry Cartwright, local officer, said it is hoped that the parties can be held on an annual basis.

Nearly one of every five American cars is off-white in color. Next in popularity is medium blue, followed by medium blue, medium turquoise, and purple maroon.

Trial Planned In Entry Case

A Bridgewater, (Pa.) man is being held in city jail today for a hearing Tuesday morning in Municipal Court on charges of breaking and entering the Good-year Store on Walnut St. on Oct. 10 and the attempted breaking and entering of Adkins Furniture & Appliance Co. on Harvey Ave. on Oct. 9.

The hearing for Lovelle Coleman was scheduled this morning but was postponed because Police Lt. William E. McDaniel, who filed the charges, was out of town to return a suspect in another burglary case.

Coleman was turned to East Liverpool Friday by Lt. McDaniel and Patrolman Kenneth H. Mooney from the Beaver County jail, where he had been held on a detainer filed by local police.

Coleman was acquitted Thursday by a Beaver County Court jury on charges of burglary and larceny in connection with the theft of a safe from Beglin Motors of Bridgewater.

No woman is too young or too old, for that matter, to appreciate a lovely gift of fine jewelry. In many ways, this is fortunate for the man faced with the problem of what to give this Christmas, for all he has to do to cover most of his personal gift list is to visit a good jeweler where a wide selection of fashionable items is available.

This year, for example, our collection of fine gem set pins has never been better. Whether you decide on a tailored style or a more elaborate creation set with precious jewels, you'll easily find something to delight her eye in our new stock. An attractive suit pin will be a continuing source of pleasure for many years, and a fond reminder of your thoughtfulness and good taste.

For that very special woman in your life, a more impressive diamond ring, in keeping with your current position in life, can carry the same romantic connotation as the original engagement ring. Whether an entirely new ring is desired, or a simple remounting in a modern setting with the addition of other diamonds, you will find many helpful suggestions and examples in our store.

Incidentally, another always popular gift item is a strand or two of lovely pearls. We have some excellent quality cultured pearls in a variety of lengths suitable for every woman on your gift list. The price range is also a wide one, and we'll be happy to show you our selection and explain the difference in quality and value. This is a most suitable gift idea for a young daughter, too.

Scranton

do every phase of that job? I don't suppose so. Do I think I could do the job if I had it? Yes, I do."

They also asked Scranton about reports that Eisenhower is advocating that Henry Cabot Lodge, ambassador to South Viet Nam, make himself available as a candidate for the nomination.

The governor said he and Eisenhower discussed this briefly and added:

"As I understand it, he (Eisenhower) denies he saw Henry Cabot Lodge and that he telephoned him or anything else, and he didn't indicate there was anything else to it."

So is Scranton in the ring or isn't he? Some observers close to the Harrisburg scene believe he is merely taking the traditional "not me" posture at this stage of the proceedings. Others believe Scranton hasn't made a decision.

But one thing is certain: With the death of President Kennedy, the Republican outlook for 1964 changed sharply. One change has been to focus a spotlight on Scranton. His discussion with Eisenhower intensifies the glare. The governor is much more in the picture today than he was a month ago.

If the late John F. Kennedy established a new image of the modern politician, Scranton fits nearly into it.

He is 46, tall, slim, young looking, with dark hair and bright brown eyes. He has a big grin, a puckish sense of humor, and an easy, informal charm. Like the late President, he gives the impression of a cool man, possessed of marble calm.

He is Yale '39 and a graduate of Yale Law School. His associates call him "a learner," who soaks up facts in a hurry and retains them.

He married a childhood sweetheart, the former Mary L. Chamberlin. She has been a formidable campaigner. Their children are Susan, 17, (born Christmas day), William, 16, John, 13, and Peter, 9.

The Scranton family has been wealthy for generations.

As a businessman, he has had experience in banks, railroad, a textbook publishing firm, radio and television stations. He established a record for community service with "Operation Bootstrap," a plan he formulated to help depressed areas of Pennsylvania.

In asserting that he doesn't want the presidency, Scranton says:

"This is a big job in Pennsylvania. I feel there is a need for leadership and I hope I'm giving it."

"I didn't want to make a career of this business (politics). I never have had a messianic feeling about it."

"I have been close enough to the White House to see what a tremendous, awesome job it is." (As a special assistant to former Secretary of State Christian Herter in 1959, Scranton attended White House conferences.)

"Being in the White House is tough on families. My children are in their formative years. They are beyond the very young age, but not old enough to be married and have lives of their own. So this does make an impression on them."

Why not end all the speculation with a "Sherman-type" statement? (Gen. Sherman said: "If nominated, I will not run; if elected I will not serve.")

Public Relations Women Feted At Crucible Affair

A tour of the open hearth department featured the annual Christmas luncheon of a rea women in public relations as guests of the Crucible Steel Co. Friday afternoon at Midland.

Robert C. Kelker, department superintendent, explained the operation of the plant preceding the tour.

John G. Gill, Midland Works manager, was host with Miss Mildred Milkovich, executive secretary in charge of arrangements. The luncheon was held in the management diningroom of the company's new cafeteria.

The group was greeted by Glenn Roberts, superintendent of community relations, and Earl Rankin, supervisor of public relations. Other guests were the secretaries of the executive offices.

Attending from East Liverpool were Mrs. Barbara Jones, women's director of WOHL, and Mrs. Clara Hall, society editor of The Review.

Sewer In Newell Flushed To Help Removal Of Gas

Newell volunteer firemen flushed out a sewer at the home of Ray Lucas, 91 Grant St., Saturday afternoon after his wife and daughter became ill from sewer gas.

Firemen said the fumes spread through the home and the wife and daughter complained of headaches and other symptoms of breathing gas fumes.

Over 1,000 gallons of water were used by firemen to flush the sewer in the yard of the home.

Firemen were also summoned to the trailer of Arthur Wickham of Congo Saturday at 12:15 p. m. when a wall caught fire as he was thawing pipes.

Rags wrapped around the pipes ignited and the flames spread to a wall between a bathroom and bedroom.

Fire Chief Earl Flesch, attempting to pinpoint the flames in the wall, whacked it with his hand and the rush of oxygen from outside caused a small explosion which blew him against a bed. He was uninjured. Firemen set damage at $25.

Films Screened At Chester Party

Robert Ridinger was in charge of entertainment and screened films on the origin of Santa Claus and the birth of Christ at the annual Christmas party of the Chester 142 Club Saturday night at the Chester Masonic Temple.

Nila Joe Bailey of Newell also entertained with a pantomime in three acts.

More than 100 children and their parents attended and were treated by Santa (Dale Hoyt) with Christmas stockings and gifts.

Refreshments were in charge of Frank Weaver, assisted by Gladys Gibbons, Carl Mooney, Willard Miller and Pat Mays.

The film and projector were furnished by the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Co. and Monongahela Power Co., respectively, both of Weirton. Addie Gibbons is president.

Man To Face Charge In City Store's Entry

Two city police officers were scheduled to return a Fredericktown man today from Pottstown, Pa., where he surrendered Friday night after telling police he was wanted for a city burglary.

Police Lt. William E. McDaniel and Patrolman Kenneth H. Mooney made the trip to Pottstown to return Charles Snyder, also known as Charles Snider, accused of stealing a quantity of merchandise from a display window of King's Bargain Center on E. 5th St. Nov. 29.

Pottstown police notified local officers that Snyder walked into the police station and said he was wanted for a burglary here. Police said an undetermined number of transistor radios and other merchandise was stolen after the display window was smashed by a thief.

Firemen Report Toys Ready For Delivery

Most of the toys and vehicles turned over to city firemen for repair before distribution to needy children for Christmas are ready for delivery, firemen said.

Asst. Chief Gerald Goodballet said several calls were received Saturday from residents offering additional toys, which the department will pick up.

Firemen make repairs where needed, repaint some of the items and then turn the toys over to the city relief department for distribution.

6 Suffer Injury In Area Crashes

Six persons were injured in two of six accidents investigated over the weekend by the State Highway Patrol at Lisbon. Two motorists were cited.

Four were injured in a two-car collision Saturday at 1:10 p. m. on Route 30 almost six miles west of Route 172.

Officers said cars driven by John N. Herniak, 44, of Pittsburgh and Charles Bruce Burton, 21, of Hanoverton R. D. 1 collided as Burton made a left turn into the path of Herniak's car.

Burton suffered a laceration of the right eyebrow and right cheek, a dislocated shoulder and a possible head injury.

MRS. AGNES M. Herniak, 40, a passenger in her husband's car, suffered a possible concussion and an abrasion of the forehead. Steven F. Herniak, 16, another passenger, had lacerations of the face and abrasions of both legs while Thomas McKenzie, 14, of Donora, Pa., the third passenger in the Herniak car, had a laceration of the lower lip.

All were taken to Salem Central Clinic.

A Georgia man and his wife were injured when their car hit a tree on Route 62 almost three miles west of Salem at 12:50 a. m. today.

Officers said Benjamin H. Pace, 47, of Mine Mountain, Ga., fell asleep while driving to Salem. The car went off the right side of the highway and hit the tree.

HE SUFFERED a laceration of the forehead and Mrs. Florence Pace, 39, suffered contusions of the forehead and bruises of the chest. Two children in the car were not hurt, officers said.

Crashes Kill 16 Over Ohio

By The Associated Press
Christmas 1963 will be a day of sadness for the families of some 20 Ohioans who lost their lives in accidents in the Buckeye State during the pre-holiday weekend.

At least 16 persons died in accidents on the state's slippery highways. Another four were victims of miscellaneous mishaps.

State officials said many of the traffic accidents during this period were the result of holiday parties. In warning motorists of the dangers of mixing alcohol and driving, Ohio Highway Safety Director Warren C. Nelson urged businesses and industry to dry up holiday parties.

Pope Paul Plans To Carry Cross On Via Dolorosa

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Vatican sources said today Pope Paul VI would start his Holy Land pilgrimage by carrying a wooden cross along Jerusalem's Via Dolorosa, the Street of Sorrows, trod by Christ as He carried His cross to His crucifixion.

The Via Dolorosa will be the Roman Catholic ruler's first stop in Jerusalem. He is to arrive Jan. 4 for the 3-day pilgrimage.

The Vatican sources said they did not know how big a cross Pope Paul would carry.

The Pope begins an intensive Christmas and New Year season, his first as pontiff.

The Pope's program starts with his Christmas broadcast to the world today. The program will keep him busy almost daily until Jan. 6, when he returns from the Holy Land.

For the Church, the Christmas season runs through Jan. 6, the holiday of Epiphany, which commemorates the baptism of Christ.

Motorist, 25, Injured In Salineville Mishap

SALINEVILLE — A Salineville motorist was hospitalized with injuries suffered early Sunday morning when his car struck a utility pole on Main St.

Lawrence Robert Earl, 25, of 505 Jefferson St. was admitted to City Hospital Sunday at 3:10 a. m. with lacerations of the upper lip, abrasions of the right cheek and abrasions of the knee. He is in "fairly good" condition today.

Chief Roy Lewis investigated.

Yule Parties Staged

EAST PALESTINE — Community Christmas parties were held by various groups here Saturday afternoon. The party at the Eagles Lodge drew 1,192, a record crowd. About the same number attended a party held at the First National Bank. The Negley volunteer firemen also had a party Saturday afternoon. More than 300 area children attended.

Peace Corps Exams Slated

Examinations will be held at the Steubenville and Youngstown Main Post Offices and the Canton Federal Building as part of nationwide tests Jan. 11 for applicants for the Peace Corps, the agency announced today in Washington.

The non-competitive placement tests will begin at 8:30 a. m. They will be held in 825 communities throughout the U. S.

All applicants for Peace Corps service are required to take the placement test and submit questionnaires. No applicant may take the test more than once without special permission. The placement test requires about 90 minutes. If an applicant claims proficiency in Spanish or French, about a 10-hour will be required for a language achievement test.

The placement test is a 30-minute general aptitude test and a 30-minute modern language aptitude test. Knowledge of a foreign language is not needed to score well on the language aptitude test, nor required for entrance in the corps.

There are no passing or failing marks on placement tests. The scores are used, along with other data, to aid in the selection process.

Training will begin this summer to help fill requests for more than 6,000 volunteers to serve in 46 countries — in Africa, Asia and Latin America. Hundreds of skills are needed in the major fields of education, agriculture, health, construction, engineering and community development.

To take the placement test, applicants must be American citizens at least 18. There is no upper age limit. Married couples may apply if they have no dependents under 18. A college education is not a requirement if an applicant can offer a certain skill or experience.

4 Youngsters Die In Eastern Blaze

BALTIMORE (AP)—Four children died early today when fire raged through a sprawling Green Spring Valley Estate house.

The children's parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Sid Poland, a 12-year-old daughter and a house guest fled to safety.

Police identified the dead as Star Poland, 7, Joel and Donald, 5-year-old twins, and Norman, 3.

Police said the fire started in a newly-built frame wing of the house where the four children were sleeping.

The twins, police said, apparently tried to escape. Their bodies were found slumped behind their closed bedroom door.

The other two probably never awakened, police said. They were still in bed when firemen found them.

Ex-Guard Claimed

ABINGTON, Pa. (AP)—Fred W. Gruber, 66, a Secret Service agent who helped protect three presidents, died Sunday. Gruber retired in 1954 as agent in charge of the U.S. Secret Service in Philadelphia after 34 years in government work.

3 Ordinances Get Sanction At Wellsville

Three pieces of legislation were given final reading by Wellsville City Council at a special meeting Saturday afternoon at 4:30.

It was the final official act of the retiring Council. A new Council, with the exception of Mrs. Mary Rahter, president, and Second Ward Councilman Dwight MacLean, will take over effective Jan. 1.

The ordinances were given first reading Tuesday. Not enough members were present to adopt them under suspension of rules. A special meeting was held Friday night at 11:30 for the second reading.

Councilmen William Stroble and MacLean were absent both Friday night and Saturday afternoon.

One ordinance provides for the annual transfer of funds to balance year - end accounts in each department.

Another authorizes Safety - Service Director Fred Baldasare to advertise for bids on the leasing of city property along the super - road east of the Wells Hollow Rd.

The third provides $5-a-month wage increases for five city officials to pay for the telephones in their homes. Previously, the phone bills were paid by the city individually. Now each will be responsible for his or her own bill.

The increases were given the mayor, safety - service director, fire chief, police chief and Council clerk.

New Council members will be sworn in at a ceremony Jan. 1 at 10 a. m. at City Hall.

St. Luke Church Slates Services

The annual Christmas Eve services at St. Luke's Episcopal Church, at Georgetown will be held Tuesday at 9 p. m. The Rev. Philip Schaefer, rector, will be in charge and administer Holy Communion.

The choir will sing, "O Holy Night" and Mrs. Charles Finley will play "The Birthday of a King." Memorial flowers will be placed on the altar.

Mrs. Robert Morrow of Route 1, on a hunting trip recently in Forest County with her husband and Charles Wright, proved the most adept hunter of the trio, bagging a 120-pound doe. The men came home empty-handed.

Mr. and Mrs. John Calhoun of New Brighton, formerly of Georgetown, are patients in Beaver Valley Hospital in New Brighton. Mrs. Calhoun suffered a broken ankle in a fall on steps at home, and her husband suffered a broken arm when involved in an auto accident.

Miami U. Announces '64 Overseas Studies

OXFORD, Ohio (AP)—Miami University announced plans Sunday for its 12th annual Study Abroad Program, a 55-day tour of 12 countries with opportunity for credit toward a degree.

Students may either leave by ship from New York on June 18 or by plane June 22. They will meet June 23 in London. Tour director is Dr. George C. Grosscup.

Lisbon Police List Crashes

LISBON — Police investigated two collisions over the weekend on Lincoln Way. No one was injured.

George A. Hiner, 49, of 515 W. Maple St. drove north on Vine St. and pulled onto Lincoln Way in front of an eastbound sedan driven by Ralph Glenn Monroe, 53, of Munroe Falls, Ohio, according to Assistant Police Chief John Varner.

Police estimated $195 damage to Monroe's 1958 car and $100 damage to Hiner's 1961 auto. They charged Hiner with failure to yield the right-of-way. The collision happened at 10 a. m. Sunday.

The other mishap involved eastbound vehicles and occurred at the Beaver St. traffic light at 2:45 p. m. Saturday.

Patrolman John Vokovich charged Donald G. DeCarbo of New Castle, Pa., with failure to stop in an assured clear distance.

Police said DeCarbo was driving a 1963 ambulance and ran into the rear of a 1959 sedan driven by Kinsey LeMasters, 51, of R. D. 4. LeMasters had stopped for the light, police said, and was moving forward again when hit.

There was an estimated $300 damage to the sedan and $50 to the ambulance.

Dodge Heir Claimed

DETROIT (AP)—Horace E. Dodge Jr., 63, playboy heir to a multimillion-dollar auto fortune, died Sunday after a long illness. He was the only son of the late Horace Dodge Sr., who with his brother, John Francis Dodge, founded the Dodge Motor Co.

In 1962, an hour's factory work would buy 9.2 quarts of milk, compared with 5.7 quarts in 1942 and 4.1 quarts in 1932.

Loss

$150; auto radiators valued at $100 and aluminum worth $10, plus assorted tools such as wrenches, pliers, screw drivers and a pair of wire-cutters, police said.

The burglary was discovered by Samuel Caplan when he checked on the property at 9:15 a. m. yesterday, police said. He reported the entry to Patrolman William A. Devon, desk officer at headquarters, and the investigation was made by Lt. Clyde W. Boso and Patrolman Orin C. Smith.

Police said the intruders apparently gained entrance to the yard by climbing over a high fence. Then they broke a glass pane in a door in the east side of a 160-x-40-foot building and reached through the opening to unlock the door.

The burglars entered an adjoining office and took 70 cents from a petty cash box in a cupboard. The scrap metal was taken from the warehouse section of the combination building.

A sliding door on west side of the structure was opened to move the loot to a loading platform outside. A steel and wire gate was lifted out of its hinges to allow exit from the yard.

Fire

roaring start when it was discovered.

Alarm Telephoned

It was Lee who telephoned the alarm.

"The fire could have been put out if the water main in the grandstand had not been frozen," he said.

The track has its own water system.

Chief Paul Wigner of New Cumberland said his department was hampered at the outset for lack of water.

He said water in the track's storage tank "didn't last long" and the department laid lines almost immediately to the river.

Mercury Near Zero

The temperature hovered near the zero mark and the firemen's helmets and clothing were covered with dangling icicles formed from splashing water.

Arriving at the scene at about the same time as Connors and Lee noticed the flames were Tom Bell, 20, and David Bell, 19, sons of Harry Bell, the general manager. They live nearby.

The two raced into the clubhouse in an attempt to save their father's records and office equipment, but succeeded in moving it only a short distance before firemen arrived and warned them to leave the building.

Cause Sought

There still has been no official determination of the cause. Some firemen at the scene Saturday said the flames may have broken out in the kitchen on the first floor.

However, Pughtown firemen, who arrived about 5, said the blaze appeared to have started in the second floor, judging from the concentration of the flames.

A maintenance employee said workmen were on duty in the clubhouse Saturday installing an escalator.

Most track employees had been dismissed Friday afternoon for the Christmas holidays.

Penthouse Destroyed

Caught up in the inferno was the fabulous penthouse of James Edwards, owner of Waterford Park, whose racing property has been hit by fire with alarming regularity in the last two years.

The owner's private quarters were located in the third story of the clubhouse, which was in the process of major renovation to make space for what was to be a Cap and Whip Club.

Edwards' penthouse included such lavish fixtures as a steam bath, private elevator, plush carpets and paintings.

The mezzanine and betting windows, plus lounge facilities, occupied the second story.

Restaurant Consumed

On the first floor were a restaurant called The Imperial Room, more betting windows, a kitchen and the private office of Harry Bell, the manager.

Work on enclosing the Cap and Whip Club in glass panels started last summer and was about 60 per cent complete. The project called for extension of the front of the previous building. The club was to open in March. Huge glass windows installed as part of the clubhouse renovation shattered into worthless bits from the intense heat. The upper stories came crashing down with a roar and the masonry blocks crumbled in large sections, sending up showers of sparks.

Although it sent up a glare and smoke throughout the area, the fire attracted only a small crowd. The track had only skelton crews on duty after the end of the fall and winter racing season last Saturday.

Many Employees Absent

Most of the horse owners and stable hands left the track when the season ended.

All the betting apparatus of the American Totalizator Co. had been removed from the track Dec. 16.

Robert Prince of Calcutta, assistant operator of the Totalizator equipment at Waterford, said there might have been some damage to the control circuits operating the odds board in the paddock area in the rear of the clubhouse.

Watching the inferno Saturday night, Tom Bell commented: "It looks just like the Wheeling Downs Fire."

He referred to a $1.5 million fire that destroyed the renovated grandstand at Wheeling Downs on Dec. 20, 1962, almost a year to the day from the Waterford Park blaze.

Storm

ward, arriving in the southern counties after midnight.

Piketon and Cincinnati had accumulated an inch or two of snow by 6 this morning. In East Liverpool, the snowfall became heavy shortly before 8:30 a. m.

The snow accumulated rapidly on district streets and highways. City, township and county road crews went to work throughout the district to spread ashes and salt.

East Liverpool's hopes for a white Christmas may be more than fulfilled before the storm baates.

The snow accumulation was to move northeastward today, arriving in the extreme northeast counties before noon. Four inches or more accumulation was expected for most of the state by tonight.

Cloudiness Sunday night helped hold temperatures to the highest readings in the last 10 days. Early today, temperatures ranged from 19 at Youngstown to 23 at Columbus.

Court Acquits Milnes

BEAVER — County Treasurer Russel Milnes was found not guilty today by Judge Morgan H. Sohn in County Court on charges of fraud and misbehavior in office. Milnes was accused of improperly collecting expenses of less than $25.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm just one of millions of Americans who rides to work on the bus every day. Since so many people who battle buses read your column on the way to work I can think of no better place to register my complaint.

I board the bus at one of the first stops so I always get a seat. Within 10 minutes the bus is jammed and there are almost as many people standing as sitting.

The women who are standing always ask the seated passengers to hold their lunches, purses and shopping bags. Last Thursday I got grease spots on my new skirt from a leaky lunch bag. Yesterday I got a nice streak of mud on my coat because a lady had set her purse on the floor and then asked me to hold it.

This morning a young mother asked me if I would mind holding her child. Yeah—you guessed it. What do you suggest?—SITTING DUCK.

Dear Duck: It takes an extraordinary brand of nerve to ask a stranger to hold parcels, purses, lunches and children, but people will continue to do it so long as there are people.

Carry a piece of plastic sheeting about the size of a small towel in your purse. This will protect your clothing against leaky lunches and muddy purses. Now about the last catastrophe—a woman with a baby in her arms should have been offered a seat. You had that coming, Toots.

Dear Ann: I need to know what to do if anything. Here is the story:

My husband is the chief executive officer of a well-known company. We entertained 15 couples (most of them business associates) at our home a few weeks ago. The guests were all people of substantial means. There was the usual amount of drinking, but no one seemed to be out of control.

Last week I received our telephone bill. The total was a staggering $188. The itemization indicated three long-distance calls across the continent, and two calls outside of the United States—all placed the night of our party.

I phoned the telephone company and denied knowledge of these calls. They said they would "check."

Today I received a letter listing the recipients of the telephone calls. They are all women friends of one married man. My husband knows the guest who made the calls.

What, in your opinion, should be done?—THE HOSTESS.

Dear Hostess — With the Mostess on the Bill:

Your husband should mail the bill and a note to the playboy of the Western world requesting that he send his check to the phone company since he obviously "failed" to have the calls charged to his home phone.

Male By Mail

Dear Ann: I was deeply disturbed at your lambasting clubs and organizations that get people acquainted through the mail. I was considering getting in touch with such an organization myself. My husband passed

100 Hammondsville Youngsters Treated

HAMMONDSVILLE — About 100 youngsters received gifts from Santa Claus at a Christmas party of American Legion Post 742 Friday night at the post home.

Aiding Santa were Charles Oliver, commander, and Mrs. Margaret Huyghe and Mrs. Oliver of the auxiliary. About 150 stockings, balloons and popcorn balls were distributed.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruise —

Dear Heloise: Have you ever tried using sudsy ammonia on a draped cloth for polishing brass?

With one twist of the wrist all my brass door knobs, hinges and fixtures shine just like new. (Just be careful of the surrounding wood or paint.) Wipe with a clean damp cloth and dry well.

Be sure to test first to see if the items to be cleaned are SOLID brass. To do this testing, use a magnet (which can be purchased at the dime store). If the magnet clings to the article to be cleaned, then it is iron with only a brass coating . . . and should NOT be exposed to sudsy ammonia, because it will remove the coating of brass.

By using this method, at least one does not have to buy any elbow grease!

MRS. T. CARRINGTON.
Bless you. The magnet works! We never knew this before. What a way to test brass! We tested over 19 items in our home.

Ladies, be sure to wash and rinse the sudsy ammonia off immediately . . . then dry the article thoroughly to avoid streaks.

HELOISE.
DEAR HELOISE: Knit suit and dress weather is here.

For those of you who find tab buttons on your garter belt showing through on the front of your skirts . . . especially if they fit snugly or cling . . . I have found that if you remove the garter tabs and turn them over (so that the tabs fit toward your skin instead of outward), you will have no button bulges showing . . . just a nice, smooth-looking skirt!

HENRITTE MART.

DEAR HELOISE: I have a six-months-old daughter who is cutting teeth, and you know how they drool at this time . . .

I sew for her a lot, and every time I make an "out-fit," I make a bib to match it out of the scraps of the material. I cut a bib of plastic and bind the two together with bias tape to match! This saves the dress and looks nice, too.

B. H.

DEAR HELOISE: I could never hang tie-back curtains evenly, until my husband made this suggestion:

I lower the venetian blinds so that the bottom rod is exactly where I want my tie-back to be thumb-tacked in the frame of the window.

After tying back one criss-cross curtain and thumb-tacking it at exactly where this lower slat is, I walk to the other side of the window and there is my exact measurement for the other tieback!

MRS. R. A. FACTOR.

DEAR HELOISE: Here is some advice which will help other desperate mothers of teen-agers who just won't wear socks with their sneakers, and the insoles just won't come clean in the washing machine.

Buy a very stiff brush that will go down into the toes of the shoes and after removing strings, scrub the shoes with the small brush in warm, soapy water inside and out! Rinse of course.

This gets that dirt off. (When we were kids anyone caught going to bed with dirty feet . . . went to the foot tub again! Usually Daddy was standing over us in those days.)

CAROL CABLE.

DEAR HELOISE: I save my husband's slightly faded sports shirts and using a matching, plain-colored material . . . make pajama trousers. This gives him an extra pair of pajamas.

MRS. H. S. MCGILL.

DEAR HELOISE: Here's a handy tip for those of us who have leftover scraps of that adhesive-backed plastic paper:

I was wiping out my daughter's metal lunch box and noticed it was becoming rusty. I thought of those lovely scraps of paper I had saved and I used them to line her lunch box.

The paper made the inside bright and colorful and also hid the nasty old rusty spots. Now all it takes is a swipe with a damp sponge to get it clean.

cherie.

HELOISE: For all those jars one saves for leftovers, and to store things, I remove the labels, then paint the lids to harmonize with my kitchen colors. Instead of just jars, they become pretty containers. As they are not opaque like most refrigerator containers I can see just what, and how much is inside.

MRS. O. N.

Heloise welcomes all mail, especially household hints which she can pass on to readers as space permits. However, because of the tremendous volume of mail she receives daily, Heloise is unable to answer all individual letters. She will answer readers' questions in her column whenever possible.

Radiological Class Open For CD Workers

A course for instructors in radiological monitoring will be conducted at Youngstown South Side High School Jan. 8-Feb. 12 under the new Civil Defense extension program of Ohio State University.

Application forms may be obtained from any Civil Defense director in the five counties in the area served by the project. At Lisbon, applications may be obtained from Al Rutecki, 402½ W. Jefferson St., Columbiana County's director.

Participants in the course will take 32 hours of classroom work, including basic concepts of nuclear radiation, use of ionization chambers, Geiger counters and other aspects of nuclear defense.

Cleveland Clues Eyed In $50,000 Burglary

CLEVELAND (AP) — Police were checking a wallet and a shirt today to see if they are connected with a burglary at Best Jewelry Store, whose manager estimated the loot at $50,000 worth of merchandise. The wallet and shirt were found near the store.

A porter at the Flaming Embers restaurant adjacent to the jewelry store discovered a hole in the wall between the two establishments early Sunday.

The ukulele is generally conceded to be the easiest musical instrument to master.

Snow Grips South, Many Roads Closed

By The Associated Press
Snow and sleet paralyzed much of the South today, closing airports and some highways and stranding motorists as an icy blast dropped temperatures to the freezing mark as far south as Florida.
Many areas expected their first white Christmas in years. Arkansas and Tennessee reported heavy snowfalls.
Tennessee was covered by snow which spread eastward from Memphis. Roads were closed in an 80-mile radius of Memphis and air traffic was halted.
Memphis police said traffic was tangled mostly by motorists who ventured out without chains.
A taxi service was set up by police to carry doctors and other emergency personnel to hospitals.
The snow and ice storm which moved across Mississippi dropped temperatures and piled up snow, making some highways and bridges virtually impassable.
Accumulations of up to 12 inches were reported in the northwestern corner of Mississippi.
The highway patrol said all major highways out of Jackson, Miss., were icy and virtually impassable. U.S. 61 from Vicksburg north to Memphis was "almost a solid sheet of ice," the patrol said.
Louisiana also reported freezing rain and hazardous highways.
In the Baton Rouge area, the Mississippi River Bridge, the Atchafalaya River Bridge and all overpasses were temporarily closed while highway crews poured salt and sand over them.
State police closed U.S. 71 to all cars without tire chains from the Arkansas line to Alexandria, La. The Weather Bureau issued a hazardous driving warning for all of Louisiana.
The Alabama State Patrol said driving conditions were extremely hazardous in virtually all parts of the state, forcing the closing of several highways.
Rain which began in the northwest corner of the state moved rapidly across the mountain areas, changing to freezing rain and sleet, and then to snow.
The state patrol closed many roads in northern Georgia.
Air lines reported some flights out of Atlanta headed for the Midwest and south central states were canceled or delayed because of weather conditions.

Although the tomato originated in America, it was avoided as food in the United States until about a century ago — long after it was commonly eaten in Europe.

Vote Expense Reports End With 16 'Out'

All the winning candidates at the Nov. 5 general election filed sworn expense statements, but 16 losers failed to meet the deadline Friday afternoon, the County Election Board said.
Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, said the unsuccessful candidates included three from East Palestine, one each from Wellsville, Hanover and the Lisbon exempted village school district and one each in Center, Franklin, Hanover, Knox, Madison, Perry, St. Clair, Unity, West and Yellow Creek Townships.
The names of those who failed to file the statements required under the Corrupt Practices Act will be turned over to Prosecuting Atty. G. William Brock and Secretary of State Ted W. Brown, O'Hanlon said.
State law automatically bars candidates who do not file the reports from seeking public office again for five years, he pointed out.
The election board also is prohibited from issuing a certificate of election to winning candidates who do not comply. The certificate is one of the steps required in order to qualify.
The last two expense statements were filed about 10 minutes before the deadline at 4 Friday afternoon, O'Hanlon said.
They were filed by Mrs. Veronica Wolski of West Point, who said she spent $20.50 in seeking a seat on the Beaver Local Board of Education, and Kenneth Ours, who received five write-in votes for a Rogers village post.
Richard Smith and Harry L. Simpson, candidates for the city Board of Education, were among those who filed the reports Friday afternoon. Smith said he spent $8.24. Simpson reported expenses of $7.50.
Wayne Rose, unsuccessful Republican candidate for mayor of Wellsville, listed $42.02 in expenses.
Frank J. Mitcheson Jr., who ran for St. Clair Township trustee, reported he spent $138.78.

Lisbon Church Plans Rite On Christmas Eve

LISBON — The First Methodist Church will hold a Christmas Eve candlelighting service Tuesday night at 8 in the sanctuary.
The choir, directed by Miss Mary Lodge and accompanied by Mrs. Kenneth Everett, church organist, will sing "Gesu Bambino" and "The Shepherds' Christmas." Several of the familiar Christmas carols will be sung by the congregation.
The Rev. Fred Shiltz, minister, will tell the Christmas story, "Why the Chimes Rang," by Raymond MacDonald Alden.
A small candle will be given each person attending. Rev. Shiltz said they will be lighted at a given point in the service to symbolize the light and life Jesus Christ brought into the world.
The first piano was made in 1709 by Bartolomeo Christofori.

Vodrey Appoints For Clerical Job

Safety-Service Director - designate Robert E. Vodrey today announced the appointment of Miss Charlene Lanning, 743 Minerva St., as secretary in his office when he takes the post Jan. 13.
The appointment of Miss Lanning "demonstrates the administration's interest in young people and particularly its desire to provide jobs for them in East Liverpool," Vodrey said.
The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lanning, 743 Minerva St., she was graduated from East Liverpool High School in 1959 and from Robert Morris Junior College in Pittsburgh in 1961. She is a member of the First Baptist Church.
Now employed during the Christmas season at the Tri-State Credit Bureau, Miss Lanning formerly worked at the Potters Supply Co. and returned recently from Racine, Wis., where she was a secretary at the Modine Manufacturing Co.

Lisbon School Pupils Hold Christmas Party

LISBON — The annual Christmas party for eighth grade students of Lincoln Junior High School was held Thursday evening, with approximately 128 attending.
Principal and Mrs. John Lewis, Mrs. James Kennedy, Charles Powell, Barry James and Howard Johnson of the faculty also were present.
The room mothers arranged the party and served refreshments.

Tremor Rocks Homes In New Zealand Area

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP)—An earthquake shook North Auckland early today, damaging chimneys, bursting water pipes and smashing windows and crockery.
It demolished the theory that the area north of Whangarei is the only earthquake-free region of New Zealand.

Potters Perk Up But Drop 4th Tilt To Tigers, 70-58

The East Liverpool Potters closed out the 1963 part of the season with one of their top performances to date but it wasn't good enough to get by Massillon which came out with a 70-58 victory Saturday night on the Tigers' court.

Coach Jim Harris' team won't see any action until the new year when Oak Glen invades Memorial Auditorium, Jan. 3 to strike up a new local rivalry.

The loss was the fourth in six games for the Potters but Harris, although he can't be completely happy over a loss, was very satisfied with the performance by his squad at Massillon.

The Tigers gained their fifth win in six outings and notched their third straight Big 8 Conference victory.

Harris was quite impressed with the all-around play of Frank McComas who turned in one of his best performances in two seasons.

McComas, benched a week ago for his lack of scoring, poured 23 points through the hoop Saturday night hitting on 10 of 24 field goal attempts and was three-for-three from the foul line.

Frank played a strong defensive game and his rebounding was good," Harris said.

McComas tallied nine points in the first half and added 14 in the second half. He sprained his ankle near the end of the contest but finished the game and it isn't expected to slow him too much during practice drills.

Bob Forzano was next in line in the scoring department hitting on five of 16 attempts and three fouls for 13 markers. The senior guard pitched in 10 points during the second half as the Potters made one spurt to catch the Tigers only to fall short.

Bob Maltarich cashed in for 10 points and gave added support in the rebound department. Bill Hall chipped in with six points, after coming up with a 17-point performance against Wheeling Linsly the night before.

Randy Stover grabbed his share of rebounds, was held to four points but left the game early on fouls. Stover fouled out with almost four minutes remaining in the third quarter.

The Potters outshot Massillon from the floor 38% to 35% but the Tigers' one-two punch of 6-2 Floyd Pierce and 6-3 Ed Buchanan proved a little too much for the Blue and White.

Pierce, the leading scorer in Stark County fired in 21 points mostly out of the corner while Buchanan, the pivot man for Coach Nck Vrotsos' team led Massillon with 23 points.

The two squads finished the first period tied at 16-

16 then Massillon jumped in front 34-27 at halftime. The Tigers continued to pull away and went on top, 56-43 at the third quarter post.

The Potters made a determined bid to catch Massillon in the fourth quarter, whittling the lead down to six and seven points but couldn't quite catch up.

Wellsville Wraps Foul Line Around Oak Glen, 76-73

The Review Sports

OAK GLEN'S Terry Robinson (white uniform) gives Wellsville's Dick Call a little shove, but he's too late as the Tiger junior made the bucket during first-half action in Saturday's Wellsville-Oak Glen game at Chester.

Tigers Make 30 Of 40 At Foul Stripe

The foul shot became a very important part of the game again Saturday night for the Wellsville Tigers who used the charity stripe to defeat Oak Glen, 76-73, in a thriller before a packed house in the Chester Junior High gym.

Coach Jack McDevitt's team recorded its third victory in five starts while Oak Glen dropped its fourth in a row but not before giving it a game try.

Wellsville only a week ago defeated the Potters with some good foul shooting. The Tigers in their come from behind victory Saturday made 30 out of 40 attempts.

Oak Glen showed a 33 to 23 edge in field goals but this was not enough to overcome Wellsville's accuracy at the foul line. The Golden Bears shot poorly at the foul stripe hitting seven of 21.

Terry Flesch, 6-3 pivot of the Tigers, made the most of the free throw line as he wound up with 26 points and converted 14 of 16 foul attempts while dropping in six field goals.

Coach Bob Starkey's Oak Glen five led most of the way jumping out to a 24-17 margin at the end of the first quarter.

Wellsville bounced back and cut the lead to 39-37 at halftime. Starkey inserted a new quarter into the game in the third quarter.

The fresh talent went right to work and increased the lead to lead to 57-51 as the third period ended.

The Tigers trailed throughout the fourth quarter but with 1:36 remaining in the game, Pat Welch, stepped to the foul line, with Oak Glen in front, 73-72, made both attempts and put Wellsville in front for good at 74-73.

Guard Lester Bennett converted two more free throws and Wellsville put the ball in the deep freeze for the remaining time. Oak Glen failed to get possession of the ball in the closing minute.

With Flesch leading the way, the Tigers put three other starters in the double figure column. Dick Call, the 5-11 junior, and Bennett both hit for 14 points. Bennett only scored two field goals but made 10 of 13 fouls.

Welch collected 10 points in the Tiger victory.

Oak Glen, which has a wealth of bench strength, was paced by Gary Mayhew who scored 16 points. Three others in the double figure bracket were Bob Manypenny, who was one of the main sparkplugs in the second half, Tom McKittrick with 14 and Sam Simmons who dropped in 10 while playing only half of the contest.

Wellsville only shot 34 per cent from the field in its latest victory.

Coach Chick McMillan's Wellsville reserve squad edged Oak Glen's jayvees 66-62 despite a 31 point performance by Thayer.

Mick Comporetta with 13 and Harry Thornton's 12 points paced the Tigers.

Brilliant Still Unbeaten, Tops Stanton Five, 57-44

Brilliant took charge early to remain undefeated in a 57-44 victory at Stanton Local Saturday night.

Sam McCullough and Steve Peaytt combined for 43 points to anchor Coach Bob Henderson's squad to victory. McCullough scored 23 while Peaytt added 20.

Brilliant jumped in front, 16-8 at the first quarter mark and led at halftime, 30-15.

Junior Jeff Scarabino paced Stanton with 11 points while Ken Davidson added 10.

East Canton Takes 7th Straight From Indians

CANTON — East Canton, the winningest team in Stark County, made it seven straight by romping to an 89-63 victory over Southern Local here Saturday night.

Bob Farnsworth pumped 28 points through the hoop to lead the unbeaten Canton five. The winners took a 16-12 first period lead then shot in front, 41-20 at halftime.

Ron Lewis, 5-6 junior for the Indians paced their attack with a 23 point effort while Larry Smith added 14 markers.

The East Canton reserves won, 56-28.

Crestview Tops Alumni

Crestview High turned back a strong Alumni team, 63-59, Saturday night as Rick Dicken led the way with 20 points.

Sophomore Larry Athey chipped in with 16 and Ron Taylor added 14 for the varsity.

Last year's leading scorer in the County, Jim Kress, now a member of the freshman team at Eastern Kentucky, led the Alumni with 12 markers.

Tigers Subs Top Potters

The East Liverpool reserves matched the Massillon jayvees in field goals but lost at the foul line in suffering a 43-35 setback Saturday at Tigertown.

The young Potters trailed throughout the contest by seven points at each quarter mark. Massillon led at halftime 24-17 and by 34-27 after three periods.

Both squads hit 15 times from the floor but Massillon dropped in 13 of 23 fouls while the Potters showed 5 of 12.

Chuck Winters continued to pace the Potter reserves with another 14-point effort. Floyd led Massillon with 13 markers.

Kentucky Keeps Rolling

22 Holiday Tournaments Set For College Court Teams

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

The mad, mad, mad, mad world of college basketball reaches its maddest moments this week with 112 teams competing in 22 separate tournaments—at least at last count—and each one of them is supposed to mean something.

Actually, they rarely do. The serious part, conference play, is still two weeks off for a majority of the nation's myriad teams, with this week's annual Christmas holiday tournaments serving as the breaking point of the season.

The madness began last week with a handful of major tournaments. The big one was in Lexington, Ky., where the home folks got downright frantic when Col. Adolph Rupp's host Kentucky lads won their own tourney with a 98-75 conquest of Wake Forest in the final game.

The victory was the seventh in a row for unbeaten Kentucky, ranked second in the nation and obviously angling for the top spot, held by defending national champion Chicago Loyola.

The champs refused to yield ground, however. Loyola, 6-0, maintained its 100-point-a-game average with two victories during the week, 112-68 over South Dakota and 91-47 over Ohio Wesleyan.

Other ranked teams remaining unbeaten included No. 3 Michigan, 6-0; No. 6 UCLA, 6-0; No. 8 Vanderbilt, 7-0, and No. 10 Davidson, 7-0.

Michigan romped over No. 5 Duke 83-67; Butler defeated No. 9 Toledo 82-61; UCLA snapped Creighton's nine-game winning string 95-79; Vanderbilt beat Louisville 91-82 and Davidson romped over East Carolina 105-77 in Saturday games.

Seventh-ranked New York University wasn't in action Saturday but suffered a midweek upset at the hands of Wagner. No. 4 Cincinnati also was idle Saturday after two victories during the week.

Princeton, unranked but sporting one of the brightest individual stars, took third in the Kentucky tourney, edging Wisconsin 90-87 in overtime. Bill Bradley, a 6-foot-5 junior, poured in 47 points.

Ranked teams in tourney action this week include UCLA vs. Yale and Michigan vs. NYU in the first round of the Los Angeles Classic; Chicago Loyola vs. Georgetown, D.C. in the first round of the Quaker City Classic in Philadelphia, and Vanderbilt vs. Memphis State in the Vanderbilt Invitation at Nashville, Tenn.

Cincinnati is the only ranked team in action tonight, playing host to Kansas State. Saturday games involving the Top Ten include Kentucky vs. Notre Dame at Louisville, and Tulsa at Cincinnati.

The bulk of the interest, however, centers on the vast array of tournaments. Here's a partial line-up, with several more getting underway next week:

Thursday — Holiday Festival at New York, Big Eight at Kansas City, Los Angeles Classic, WCAC at San Francisco; Far West Classic at Portland, Ore.; Queen City at Buffalo and All-College at Oklahoma City.

Friday—Motor City at Detroit, Kodak Classic at Rochester, N.Y., Quaker City Classic at Philadelphia, Milwaukee Classic, Hurricane Classic at Miami Beach, Vanderbilt Invitation at Nashville, Evansville, Ind., Holiday, Poinsettia Classic at Greenville, S.C., Downeast Classic at Bangor, Maine, All-American at Owensboro, Ky., Gulf South Classic at Shreveport, La., Wagner Invitational at Staten Island, N.Y., Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., and the Watauga Invitational at Johnson City, Tenn.

Chargers Win Title In West For 3rd Time

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

"It's like going from the out-house to the penthouse."

That was the cogent comment of San Diego line coach Joe Madro after the Chargers completed an amazing flip-flop by overwhelming Denver 58-20 Sunday and clinching their third Western Division title in the four-year history of the American Football League.

And much of the credit for the turnaround must go to Paul Lowe, who has lugged a hockey guard wrapped around his fractured leg 1,010 yards this season and triggered the Chargers to their final victory by gaining 184 yards and scoring two touchdowns.

Lowe was out all last season with a broken arm, and the Chargers plummeted to a 4-10 record after winning the Western crown the first two years of the league's operation. Then, against Buffalo, in the Chargers' opener this season, Lowe suffered a hairline fracture of the left leg.

"Nobody ever knew about it but me and Coach Sid Gillman," said Lowe two days ago in revealing the injury for the first time when he was named AFL Comeback Player of the Year in an Associated Press poll. "I was determined not to let it keep me out."

So Lowe wrapped a hockey guard around the battered leg, and played. He topped off his performances by piercing the Broncos' line for the first Charger touchdown on an 11-yard run, then bolting 66 yards for the clincher in the third period as San Diego brought its record to 11-3.

The Chargers will meet the winner of the Eastern Division playoff between Boston and Buffalo for the AFL championship at San Diego, Jan. 5. The Patriots and Bills, idle Sunday, will settle their battle at Buffalo Saturday afternoon.

The only thing that concerned Gillman was the final game of the regular season with the outcome of the Western race hanging on the outcome. San Diego needed a tie or victory to hold off Oakland, which had closed to within one game of the leaders.

The Raiders wound up one length, finishing a 10-4 season by edging Houston 52-49 for their eighth consecutive victory. In the only other game scheduled, the Kansas City Chiefs crushed New York 48-0.

Denver gave the ball to San Diego six times on fumbles and interceptions, and the Chargers capitalized on each one—the most dramatic a 42-yard run by Chuck Allen with a fumble in the fourth period. San Diego moved ahead to stay 10-7 on a 17-yard field goal by George Blair in the first quarter, but needed Lowe's breakaway run for a 33-17 lead that put it out of the Broncos' reach.

Potter Wrestlers Win Third Over Brilliant

The East Liverpool Potter wrestling team will go into the New Year undefeated in dual match competition after pinning a 29-5 defeat on Brilliant Saturday afternoon at Brilliant.

The Potters recorded five pins in their latest victory. They were by Ed House (112), Terry Nusser (145), Whit Foster (138), Ralph Smith (165) and Mike Snowden (175).

East Liverpool suffered a loss at 103 where Jerry Pillar dropped a 7-5 decision and Mike Smith (154) wound up in a draw.

Butler Stuns Toledo For Second Loss

By HAL PARIS

Associated Press Writer

Most of Ohio's college basketball teams take a Christmas respite this week, but 10 quintets will see action in holiday tournaments.

There's relatively few games on the agenda but the schedule shows some top attractions.

Ohio State's bounce - back Buckeyes have little time to boast about their one-sided 78-60 walloping of Wichita Saturday.

A rangy Houston team, fresh from a triumph over rugged Oklahoma City, visits St. John Arena tonight.

Coach Fred Taylor's squad looked sharp in disposing of the rugged Shockers of the Missouri Valley Conference. The Bucks exploded for 48 points in a second-half display of offensive power to turn a tight contest into a rout.

Big Gary Bradds once again led the attack with 28 points and 16 rebounds. An aggressive Buckeye defense held the high-scoring Shockers to 27 points in the first half. Ohio had lost two straight.

In other Saturday action, Butler belted Toledo 82-61 to hand the Rockets their second straight reversal after six straight triumphs. The Bulldogs pulled out to a 36-27 halftime edge and were never headed.

Ace Larry Jones, who had been averaging 27 points a game, was limited to 19. The setback is certain to knock the Rockets from their lofty national ranking.

Dayton continued its winning ways by registering No. 7 against Murray State, 86-71.

The Flyers had to overcome a 10-4 deficit to pull out the triumph but did so with some fifty 63 per cent shooting from the field.

Once again, two highly touted sophomores, Henry Burlong and Hank Finkel, paced the way. Burlong tallied 28 and grabbed 12 rebounds while Finkel contributed 20 points.

In others, Dave Evans provided the winning layup and netted 24 points as Akron nipped Kent State 72-70; veteran Bill Fisher scored 22 as injury-riddled Wittenberg turned back Susquehanna 68-47; Youngstown (7-0) kept its record clean by pasting Illinois Wesleyan 92-65; Wooster shaded Fredonia State 67-66; Cedarville bowed to host William Penn College 75-68 in the final of the Iowa school's own invitational and Findlay captured its first annual basketball tourney with a 94-85 decision over Bluffton.

Cincinnati (5-1) faces tough Kansas State on the Bearcats' home floor tonight and opens its Missouri Valley Conference slate Saturday at home against Tulsa.

In other Saturday headlines, Ohio State journeys to Utah State and Youngstown risks its unbeaten record against Akron.

Strong Xavier and Miami meet in the Queen City Tournament at Buffalo Thursday and Dayton gets a severe test when it battles once-beaten Villanova in the Holiday Festival at New York the same day.

Other tournaments involving Ohio teams include: Dec. 26-28—Central State at Quincy, Ill., Invitational.

Dec. 27-28—Bluffton at Flint, Mich., tournament; Kent State at Trenton, N.J., tournament; Ohio Northern at Indianapolis tournament; Steubenville at Spring Arbor, Mich., tournament; Mount Union Invitational which includes Hiram, Wilmington, Baltimore and Mount Union.

ABC Is Dropping Weekly TV Fight

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — A terse announcement that the American Broadcasting Co., is dropping its weekly television boxing show wipes a 20-year fixture from the nation's TV screens.

"ABC has no plans to continue its boxing show next season," a network spokesman said late Sunday night. "By next season, I mean 1964. I can't say more than that at this time."

The spokesman, who asked that his name not be used, replied in confirmation to a New York Times report that ABC and the Gillette Safety Razor Co. the chief sponsor, had agreed to drop the weekly fight show.

The effects could be far reaching and perhaps fatal.

"At first, a lot of guys are going to go hungry," middleweight champion Joey Giardello said.

"Without television revenue, it wouldn't seem feasible... to continue our weekly boxing shows," Madison Square Garden publicist John F. X. Condon said.

Harry Markson, Garden boxing director, said only:

"We have a contract that runs through September. That's all I know about it."

Strangely, it was on Sept. 26, 1944—almost 20 years to the day before the expiration date of the present contract—that the first contract for a boxing series was signed.

In one form or another, the series has continued — for a while twice weekly—to the present. At this time ABC's Friday night boxing show is the only one regularly carried by the networks.

Waning interest in the sport, lack of enough good fighters, unsavory publicity surrounding some key figures in the sport and the economics of television were listed as the major reasons for dropping the telecasts.

Your Kitchen Faces Test At Holiday Time

Just how efficient is your kitchen? If you don't already know, you'll find out when it's time to treat the Christmas crowd to turkey and the trimmings.

Size is not the determining factor. Some big kitchens are so poorly arranged that a cook has to do a combination of the twist and a broad jump to prepare a simple casserole.

The point is to get work areas close enough together so that no motion is wasted. Kitchen range, sink and refrigerator should be located at the tips of a tight triangle.

The refrigerator should have counter space on at least one side for easy loading and range and sink should have counters on both sides. If the ovens are wall style, they also need a counter directly adjacent, and preferably one which will take heat.

Sounds easy, doesn't it? And it is. There's no reason to settle for less.

Cabinet design is equally important. Upper cabinets should be within easy reach and base cabinets should be equipped with shelves mounted on glides to eliminate bending and reaching.

You need a bank of utensil drawers directly next to the range and at least one cabinet for frequently used pots and pans. One upper cabinet adjacent to the range should be earmarked for spices.

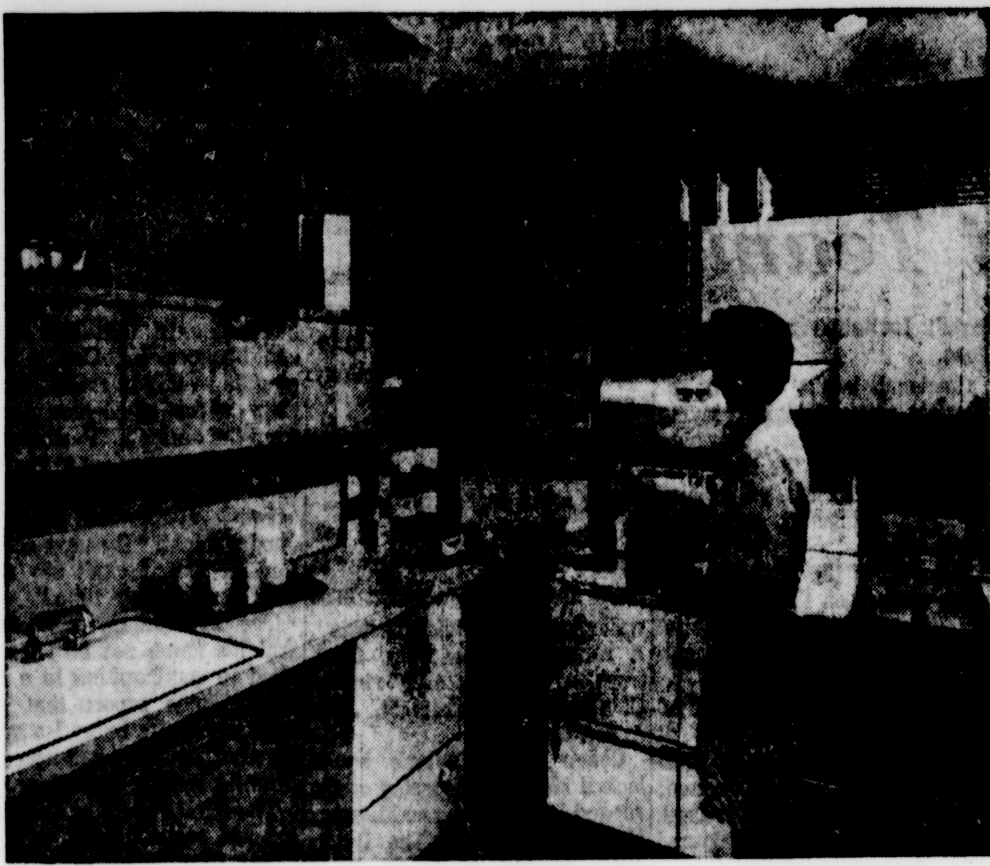

The dishwasher and china cabinets are bugaboos, frequently poorly located. Try to place the dishwasher so that you can unload directly to the china cupboard without taking a step, and get that dish cupboard as close to the table as possible.

Appearance is another determining factor in kitchen efficiency. There should be a mood of serenity, not laboratory sterility or front parlor fussiness.

Dust-trapping curlicues should be eliminated in favor of modern clean lines in cabinetwork. And cabinets should be light in color, never somber. For this reason many kitchen designers now specify light toned, vertical grained woods such as fir.

Fir's golden beige coloring has character and depth which is best enhanced by the application of a sealer coat and a washable, matte finish plastic lacquer. No additional coloring is required.

Color scheme is a big item on the efficiency checklist. Pastels are soothing and the best bet for making the cook feel bright and cheery while she's working, according to psychologists.

METTLE OF ANY KITCHEN is tested during holiday cooking. This petite model gets high mark for work spaces excellently arranged in quick step U. Trim design of the cabinets hung on paneled walls makes the small area look larger, supplies eye-delighting background of rich, quiet beauty.

Why Not Be Different?

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

There's an idea for everyone when it comes to brightening up the home at Christmas.

Many communities award prizes for especially creative mailboxes and doors. Some traditional ideas are always in — the wreath in every window, lighting up the large spruce on the front lawn, a spray of fir and holly on the door.

Some ideas are downright corn and completely out of step with the Christmas theme. And just as bad are those persons who sheep-like follow the bad taste prevalent in their neighborhood in the interest of conformity.

Be different. Outdoors and indoors the goal should be to work with what you've got, and in relationship to the architecture of your home.

WHY SHOULD the owner of a stark modern dwelling go along with traditional lighting schemes if he can dream up something more interesting?

Well, why not decorate the branches of a deciduous tree? The combination of the new outdoor bright lights that glow like little stars and the stark branches of the tree can really flatter a modern dwelling. Dwarf fruit trees are ideal size for decorating in this way. Dogwood trees and even drooping bushes can provide branches for a different kind of outdoor decoration.

The idea is a stark-bright look.

Picture windows may need a more modern touch, since so many wreaths would be needed to decorate panes that the effect would be out of whack with the simplicity of the modern house or ranch house.

Pine rope carried around the window to outline it with lights may make a lovely picture, particularly if the indoor Christmas tree is to be set in the picture window. Most people do put the tree at a picture window if there is enough room in the area as it is usually cooler near the window and an ideal place for the tree.

I THERE are a number of panes in the window, the panes could be outlined with rope and lights, if the tree is placed elsewhere.

Rural mailboxes may be spotlighted with pine wrapped around the base and perhaps a nest of artificial birds wired to the top.

Some people place a crèche over the mailbox, building a chapel-shaped wooden closure for the box on which the crèche rests.

The same rope pine may be used to decorate the lamp post, tied with an enormous red bow, strung with electric lights if you like.

The driveway may be illuminated with spotlights, reflectors, spot bulbs placed on small stars, snowflakes or trees designed from aluminum foil and placed on stakes put into the ground. These are fun for small fry to make. White fences may be prettily decorated with colored lights; post and rail fences look good in bright white lights.

Doorways may be kept bright through the holidays with concealed floodlights lighting up some pretty decoration. Or the lights can be on the decoration.

A POPULAR one for contemporary or traditional houses is the tree made out of a slat arrangement of narrow pine boards three inches apart. The size of the tree depends on the length of the bottom board and the vertical board down the center that holds the slats together and forms a tree trunk.

The tree may be painted red, green, blue, gold, with lights in the same color. Lighting experts suggest that the bulb wires may be taped under each slat.

An idea that may replace the crossed candy canes at the door this year is crossed lollipops. The giant-size pops are made with circles of hardboard and cardboard of the same size.

The hardboard is striped in a colored spiral design about 1½ inches wide, starting from the center, and leaving the same stripe in between for a white stripe. Holes are bored in the colored stripe from the center of the pop about 2 inches apart.

When reaching the outer edge the distance is increased to about 3 inches between. One lollipop takes about 40 lamps put into the small holes with wire and sockets at the back. The piece of cardboard is fastened to the rear with twine so that the wire can be attached to the plug.

The pops may be anchored where they are joined by glue or good-size metal clamps with a large bow of ribbon or holly concealing it.

CD Pipeline Assists

Medina County Town
SPENCER, Ohio (AP)—Water pumped through a Civil Defense pipeline was pouring today into the nearly dry reservoirs of this Medina County community.

Only a two-day supply of water was left Sunday when the pipeline started to bring water a distance of 2.7 miles from the Black River.

The line of eight-inch pipe was laid by volunteers and Civil Defense workers, who kept at their task around the clock for three days.

With water being pumped at the rate of 1,200 gallons a minute, officials estimated it would take 14 to 18 days to fill the reservoirs, which hold 27 million gallons. The reservoirs had been depleted by this year's severe drought.

Tips Offered For Laying Of Asphalt Tile

Question: I have finished a room in our basement, but have done nothing about the floor, which is made of concrete. I plan on using asphalt tile over the concrete, which I have been told is feasible, especially since the concrete is in good condition and very smooth. Are there any tips you can give me about this type of installation?

Answer: Yes, asphalt tile can be laid directly on the concrete when conditions are as you describe them.

The type of adhesive for laying asphalt tile is a black, tar-like substance which is spread on with a notched trowel. Be sure you get the trowel when you purchase the cement.

The adhesive must be completely dry to the touch before the tiles are installed.

In fact, you can wait two, three or more hours before putting down the tiles if you so desire. The important thing is not to place the tiles on the floor while the adhesive is damp. Place the tiles carefully; do not slide them.

You can cut asphalt tile with a sharp knife and a straight-edge if you are making a straight cut. If you are making an irregular or curved cut, to fit around an obstruction, the tile must be warmed first. Do this very carefully, since if you heat the tile too much, you will spoil it.

Hydronic Heat Proves Healthful

No heating system can prevent children from catching cold when they come in from winter play with wet feet.

But a sound system can provide healthful interior heating that eliminates drafts and stratification (where cold air forms a layer at the floor and other layers get warm as they approach the ceiling).

Most heating engineers agree that hydronic (hot water) radiant heating is the perfect and economical answer to these health threats. There are several kinds of circulating hot water heating systems, including heat distributors in baseboard, floors, walls or ceilings; but in each case, the effect is even, draftless heat in all parts of the room.

Hydronic radiant heating, says the Plumbing - Heating - Cooling Information Bureau of Chicago, effectively prevents excessive loss of body heat (which is the reason the body gets cold) at all times. Room temperature is kept constant because the system adjusts smoothly to fluctuating outside temperatures.

Circulation of allergy-producing pollens, dust, bacteria and odors is eliminated because there are no warm or cold drafts to spread them.

Hydronic heating contributes greatly to comfortable, healthful living because it transmits heat in the same beneficial way that the sun does.

In addition, since heat distributors are unobtrusive, complete freedom is permitted in planning the room's decor.

Short Circuit Blamed In East End Fire Call

A short in an electrical outlet and two mistaken presumptions of fire kept city firemen busy Saturday night.

East End firemen were called to the Wallover Oil Co. on Virginia Ave. when a janitor called for help after seeing sparks coming from the outlet. Firemen stood by until an electrician arrived.

The department was called to Church and East Lns. at 6:46 p. m. when a neighbor saw steam coming from an unidentified auto and thought the car was on fire, firemen said. Vapor coming from a vent on a gas heater was mistaken for smoke and firemen were summoned to the Fisher Building, 108 E. 6th St., at 11:33 p. m.

Joyce Gives Her All For TV Comedy

Trying to be a good sport can get a girl killed. Worse yet, she can lose her hair, her voice and a tooth.

"Then the same guys who asked you to be a good sport don't want you. They can't use a girl with no hair, no voice and a missing tooth," says Joyce Jameson.

Garry Moore fits TV's norm much more closely.

She believes, however, TV is finding that more controversial humor is the only avenue left to it. She sees NBC's putting "That Was the Week That Was" into its Friday night schedule next month as an encouraging sign.

"Some of the people doing satire have hurt its future themselves by going too far," Joyce claims. "Why should ABC let Jerry Lewis put Mort Sahl on without knowing what he's going to say? Mort himself didn't even know. I don't think satire has to always be insulting, either."

Joyce, who must be the most underrated comedienne in show business today, is exaggerating her plight. Even with a wig, false tooth and a voice like a file on wood, she has more TV work than she can keep up with at the moment.

"NO KIDDING, that's how I lost my hair. It's been back-combed, over-bleached and dyed until there's nothing left," she says, from under her wig.

"I dyed it again for 'McHale's Navy,' and I just about got killed there, too. They had me falling off the boat. I didn't know what I was getting into, but I wanted to be a good sport. Afterward, somebody comes up and says to me, 'You should have asked for a stunt girl.'"

Besides "McHale's Navy," which is aired Christmas Eve at 8:30 p.m., Joyce this month has been on a Jack Benny show and an Alfred Hitchcock show. Just before that she appeared twice with Jerry Lewis and also worked on a Perry Mason and Burke's Law.

"I HAVE A FEELING I'm about to be discovered again," says Joyce. "It happens to me all the time. Maybe this time it will take. Who knows?"

Steve Allen discovered Joyce when he was doing his weekly show on NBC some years ago. Later on Spike Jones rediscovered her, and she worked steadily with him until he left TV.

After both of those "discoveries," Joyce listened to personal agents who told her she was not being "guided properly" in her career.

"They get too greedy and ask producers for too much money, and suddenly I'm not working," says Joyce, who now is with one of the large talent agencies. "So far, I think it's working out better for me."

JOYCE'S FORTE is mimicry and satire, neither of which is much in demand by the conservative TV networks. A Carol Burnett mugging it up in some slapstick domestic affair with

Elderly Woman Dies

WASHINGTON COURT HOUSE, Ohio (AP)—An 86-year-old woman died of burns in her home over the weekend, it was reported today.

The victim was identified as Mrs. Ethel Barnes, 86, of Washington Court House.

Officials said the death was discovered by her daughter, who came from Dayton to visit her. When the daughter couldn't rouse anyone at the home, she notified police, who forced their way in.

Wittenberg U. Nears $6 Million Drive Goal

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Wittenberg University's three-year fund drive as the first phase of its long-range development program is 137,000 away from the $6-million goal, and Vice President Roland C. Matthews says the school hopes to reach that total by the end of the year.

He said Sunday that $5,862,985 has been collected to date, some $825,770 coming from Springfield residents. The funds are for capital improvements on the campus.

Kennedy Tribute Held

CLEVELAND (AP)—An outdoor memorial service and a mass for the late President John F. Kennedy drew more than 1,000 persons at St. Benedict Catholic Church Sunday. Mayor Ralph S. Locher was chief speaker at the memorial service. He also read a message from Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, the slain president's brother.

Junior Editors Quiz on SPACE TRAVEL

QUESTION: Can space travelers live on pills instead of food?

ANSWER: Scientists could no doubt compress much nourishment into pill form, but pills might not be very tempting for space travelers to eat day after day. Actually, it is not necessary to rely on pills, because food experts have worked out ways of providing food in its usual form to space travelers. The astronaut in our main picture is one undergoing training in the condition of weightlessness which occurs at extreme speeds space capsules will travel. To get them used to this, astronauts are taken aloft in jet planes which dive at a speed which creates weightlessness. Specially padded cabins are used. This man is sucking and squeezing out a snack of applesauce from a special tube made for the purpose.

Astronauts will actually be strapped down in comfortable seats. Their food will have been dehydrated—meaning the moisture is removed—and will be in packages. When the astronaut adds water through a special nozzle, the food becomes the same as before dehydration. As you can see, space meals will be much the same as those we enjoy back on earth.

FOR YOU TO DO: Watch the newspaper to become familiar with preparations the U.S. is making for a moon flight. Astronauts are now under training. Next summer, the first manned flight of the Gemini mission should start. Learn about it in advance.

Stella Tucker of Fitchburg, Mass., wins today's grand prize of a 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review and you too may win a set.
